Confessions of a Non-Traditional Quilter

John Flynn didn't start out as a quilter. He began his career as an engineer who built bridges. His curiosity was sparked by watching his wife, Brooke, quilt. He decided to try his hand at quilting and the rest is...well, you know.

Besides creating his own breath-taking quilts, John also shares his talents with others as a world renown teacher. After several years of quilting, John sold his construction company and began Flynn's Quilt Frame Company, selling not only frames that John designed, but also John's books, templates, and template making supplies.

John and his wife, Brooke, currently reside in Montana. Visit his website at www.flynnquilt.com

We'll need more volunteers to sign-up for the March meeting. We would like to have 10 available. We reserve seats in the second row on the right side of the room for them. Also, anyone who plans to help should check in with Jan Kirchhoff that evening so she will know who and how many are there. Jan is there early and in the front row so it's easy to find her. Email Rose at rosemkastl@windstream.net if you have any additional questions.

President's Message

Spring is just around the corner. Haven't we all heard that one? I just wish I knew which corner. This is a busy time for the guild. It's our birthday month and hopefully you remembered to make a cuddle quilt. If you didn't, don't worry, they are accepted all year long. There are patterns on the web site or you can use any pattern you might have. You can pick up a kit from the resource room, take it home, and finish it. Maybe you just want to tie or quilt a pre-sewn top, no problem. There are lots of ways to help those less fortunate than ourselves. Quilts just seem to warm the souls on both the construction and the receiving ends. To quote another Martha, it's a good thing!

Crazy Quilt De-accessioned

A crazy quilt (ca. 1900) documented as part of the Nebraska Quilt Project was given to the Lincoln Quilters Guild in 1987. It has been stored for many years in our Resource Room.

The quilt is lovely but very fragile. The quilt has some connections to Crete, Nebraska according to information provided by LQG member, Jan Stehlik, in 1987.

The Guild Executive Board voted to de-accession this quilt so that it can be housed and displayed in an appropriate setting. The quilt will be given to Jan Stehlik who will donate it to the Saline County Historical Society.

March is LQG's Birthday month

All guild members are invited to share in the observance of LQG's birthday at the March, 2009 meeting. Once again, you are invited to bring a quilt for the Cuddle Quilt project to the March meeting.

Crib Quilt – 42" x 56"

Crib Liner – 18" x 24", both sides flannel, no batting, envelope turn, no binding. If you cannot finish a quilt, we will take tops too!

This is an opportunity to participate in the Cuddle Quilt Project and give a quilt to a child who needs warmth and comfort.

Young Quilt Artists Project

Elizabeth Sterns needs more volunteers to work with the increased number of high school students at The Bryan Community.

Elizabeth would also like to start working with Lincoln East School again if we can get enough volunteers.

The LQG Quilt Show last spring had such a wonderful display on the quilts these students made. Help them learn the warm and comfort of creating a quilt.

Please contact her at 464-9467.

Nebraska State Fair

This is the last year the Fair will be in Lincoln! A co-chair is needed for White Glovers. This person would mail out tickets and supervise the Day Captains. Bonnie Kucera is the Chair. She will recruit helpers and day captains. From last year's experience, it's beneficial for the co-chair to live in Lincoln. Please see Bonnie Kucera or Sheila Green.

March Postcard Exchange

Bring your finished postcard to the March meeting, and take home one made by someone else. Yours can be any design; spring, birthday, or holiday. Your postcard should have 3 layers, and the size is 4" x 5". If you need more ideas, look on the internet for more detailed instructions.

General Instructions:

Top: use any quilting technique. Embellish with any type of decorative threads, beads, yarns, trims, buttons, paints, stamps, stencils, or crystals. Make it a fun, happy expression!

Middle: Use anything to make it somewhat firm and that can be sewn over: Timtex or Peltex, card stock, or stiff interfacing.

Backing: should be something that you can write on, muslin or card stock.

Edge finishing: satin stitching, zigzag over fun yarn, blanket stitch, or fusible binding.

Post Office: max depth is 1/4", so if you have lots of embellishments, you may want to use an envelope. Hand canceling at the post office window is preferred over letting your postcard go through their canceling machine. Your card may require extra postage.

Remember, this is a sample of your quilting, so make sure you sign it!

Vicky Skuodas, 826-5008

Quilters Astrology

Pisces • February 19 - March 20

The Pisces quilter quietly works their magic in private, then shares a bit of themselves in dazzling displays of otherworldly inspired colors and images. They tend to be modest about their art, but at the same time are proud of the message or feelings contained in their images or designs. They pursue a lofty ideal in their work and allow their vision to be shared with those who can slow down to appreciate the view.

QNE09: Right in Your Own Back Yard

QuiltNebraska 2009 will be right here in the Star City, July 23-26, 2009!

You're invited to take advantage of the wonderful opportunity to learn, shop (27 vendors), and network with other quilters. There's something for everyone, and one-day registrations are available for those who don't feel they can commit an entire weekend.

Sheila Green and Jo Anne Bair are co-chairing Quilt History Day on July 23.

If you love crazy quilts – this one's for you! National teachers include elinor peace bailey (doll maven), internationally known appliqué artist Suzanne Marshall, Joan Wolfram, the queen of color theory, Janet Jones Worley and more. Twenty-three state and regional teachers, including Peg Pennell, Peg Spradlin, Barbara Caron, Kriss Moulds and Bonnie Kucera will round out the faculty with a veritable smorgasbord of course offerings.

We'll offer tours of IQSC&M, hands-on long arm quilting classes, and expert advice on using EQ6. Raffles, a celebrity auction, a red-white-and-blue themed show and tell, special guest Jodie Davis of QNN, an encore performance by The Singing Quilter and more!

The online registration booklet will be posted in late April at www.nsqq.org.

You will need to print the registration form and mail it in. Beat the early registration deadline for optimum course selection.
