Speaker: Gail Garber

Liberalism in Quilting: Free-form Art Quilts

Never one to adhere to rules, I began breaking the quilting edicts soon after I learned the basics necessary to create an original design. Problems with bindings on corners? Just leave the corners off! It's fun and easy to be your own designer, and to break away from the tedium of repetitive block design. Gail will lead you on a journey of exploration, from the valley of tradition, along the rocky road of great ideas gone wrong, to the rainbow peaks of increased creativity in quilts!

President's Message

This year has passed so quickly! I would have never believed that it would be filled with so many great experiences! Serving as your President has been very rewarding. I now have many more "guild friendships" that I will cherish and continue to foster. I look forward to coming to meetings and visiting with you. I am pleased that you have been so supportive of the Guild activities. One of my goals this past year has been to encourage our members to participate in Guild activities while forming and strengthening friendships. I believe every one of our programs has been successful this year because of all of you. This is a remarkable Guild and I am proud to have served and represented everyone in it. I extend congratulations and best wishes to our new Board and thank them for agreeing to serve. I am confident they will receive as much support as the current Board and I have. I will serve the coming year as an advisor to the Board and will then take my place among you, knowing that I am better for the experience.

Thank you all for everything,

Joyce Pope

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - April 9, 2012

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Joyce Pope called the meeting to order, thanked our speaker, Linda Carlson, and welcomed everyone.

Old Business

The proposed Bylaw changes were handed out at the March meeting and were printed in the April Plain Print. Extra copies were offered and Joyce called for discussion on the proposed Bylaw changes. There wasn't any discussion and it was moved and seconded to accept the changes. Joyce called for a vote by show of hands and the Bylaw changes were approved.

The proposed budget was handed out at the March meeting. The April Plain Print had the comments regarding the budget but the actual budget was inadvertently omitted. Joyce offered extra copies and then called for discussion on the proposed Budget. There wasn't any discussion and it was moved and seconded to accept the Budget as printed. Joyce called for a vote by show of hands and the Budget was approved.

New Business

Linda Pumphrey, National Sales Manager for AccuQuilt and also Co-chair of the American Quilt Study Group Seminar 2012 came forward to extend two invitations to area events. There will be a Barn Quilt Unveiling Event Friday, June 22 at AccuQuilt's new headquarters in Omaha. If you plan to attend, please RSVP by May 1st. Linda also told about the AQSG Seminar that will be in Lincoln October 3-7 and asked that we consider attending and/or volunteering for the four day event.

The minutes of the March meeting were printed in the Plain Print and were approved as printed.

The March Treasurer's report was printed in the Plain Print and remanded for audit.

Sue McKee and Kathy Morgan gave us information about the fall bus trip September 21-22. They won't tell us where we are going but we will go to five quilt shops on Friday and four on Saturday. Reservations and $50 deposit are due May 1st.

Kate Laucomer, Nominations Committee, had the proposed slate of officers come forward. There were no nominations from the floor and it was moved and seconded to accept the slate. President, Sandy Anderson; VP, Vicky Skuodas; Secretary, Barb Caron; Treasurer, Christina Chapman; President Elect, Linda Daiker; co-VPs Elect, Sara Kenny and Mary Sedlak; Treasurer Elect Marsha Conley; and Advisor, Joyce Pope. Joyce called for a vote by show of hands and the officers were elected.

Announcements from Sandy Anderson, President-elect:

Sandy asked the seven visitors stand to be recognized and they were welcomed with applause.

Congratulations to Kris Vierra for receiving 2nd place in Jo-Ann Fabric's nationwide Quilt Your Colors contest.

Quilt show t-shirts are here. Please pick your order up from Joni Sauter.

Magazines are still available for sale. If you know of a place in our community that could use some of the leftover magazines, please see Vicky Skuodas.

Henderson, Nebraska is having a Q125 Quilt Show May 28-29. Contact the Henderson Chamber 402-723-4228 with questions.

The NSQG has two more opportunities to hand quilt on the 150th Anniversary of Homestead Act Quilt, April 13 and 20 at the Homestead National Monument Education Center near Beatrice.

QuiltNebraska 2012 will be July 26-29 at the LaVista Convention Center.

Our speaker, Linda Carlson, donated four of her patterns for door prizes and Sandy gave them to lucky members with birthdays in April.

Committee Reports:

Elizabeth Sterns, 2012 Quilt Show Chair, said the show is only five weeks away. Please sign up to volunteer for the show. Tickets for our raffle quilt are still available so please keep selling tickets and don't forget to turn in ticket stubs. Challenge Quilts deadline was tonight.

There are five categories for quilts in our show and registration deadline is May 1st. Please go to www.lincolnquiltersguild.org and enter your quilts in the quilt show.

Six billboards advertising our show will start showing April 23. We have posters and bookmarks available for members to post and handout. Please spread the word about our show and invite people to attend.

There will be a youth workshop on the 2nd floor to learn to make quilt blocks and the blocks will go into a Quilts Of Valor quilt. Please consider donating red/white/blue fabric that can make 2.5"x6.5" strips for the blocks.

Volunteers for overnight security are needed. Please volunteer with Lora Yardley. White glove volunteers should contact Kathy Phillip.

Please donate a quilted item for the Live Auction that will be held on Saturday, May 19.

Pam Wakeman and Tanna Kinnaman announced that this month nine of the Friendship Blocks were donated to the Cuddle Quilts and the rest were divided into six sets. Winners of the Friendship Blocks this month were: Jane Grabenstein-Chandler, Joyce Pope, Anita Dover, Carolyn Kitterer, and LaDonna Pankoke. Pam then showed the quilt top she made from previous Friendship Blocks that were donated for our quilt show auction. Gloria Smith will quilt it and then it will be sold at auction May 19th.

Mini-Raffle chairs, Barb Brown and Kathy Spitsen, announced $57.50 was raised through the three items donated tonight. Kim Shelley won the wall hanging donated by Cheryl Kupcinski. DeEtte Turgeon won the wall hanging donated by Vicky Skuodas. Susan Johnson-Russell won the tote/purse donated by Kathy Phillip.

Barb Burton reminded us that the Lancaster County Fair is coming in August. Contact her if you would like to volunteer and please consider entering your quilts.

Wanda Hein, IQSC & Museum Liaison, highlighted some of the activities going on at the IQSC&M.

8:20pm Joyce adjourned the meeting to Show & Tell.

Quilters Astrology

Taurus
April 20 – May 20

The Taurus quilter has a giant stash back home: not just gorgeous fabrics, but all kinds of beautiful objects and lovely collectibles that bring them pleasure by holding or looking at them. These exquisitely made objects d'art and sensuous fabrics may come along to a class or conference simply for the pleasure of sharing their beauty with others.

Keep me in Stitches

*You can take my TV and my trips to the beach.
I don't mind if I miss that political speech.
When I skip a good movie, I won't feel any guilt
If you'll let me stay home and sew on a quilt, or maybe a hanging, perhaps a new vest.
With a project to work on, I'm feeling my best.
I don't darn old socks, and seldom mend britches,
But don't take my quilting. Keep me in stitches!*

Fantastic

One hot summer day, no air was stirring.
I turned on a fan and was lulled by its whirring.
Enjoying the breeze, I sat in my chair
And picked up some old fabric scraps lying there.
An emerald green and sapphire blue,
Pure snowy white and garnet red too.
Beginning to doze I relaxed my hand.
The pieces were swirled in the air by the fan.
I'll always remember that day so serene.
The whirling colors made a lovely scene.
Their dancing was graceful as in a ballet,
Those satins and velvets and bits of moiré.
I turned off the fan, still asleep just half way.
Or was I awake? I really can't say.
The scraps slowly floated down to the floor
Into a design I'd not seen before.
A crown set with jewels of green blue and red
On top of Great-grandmother's silky white head.

Registration Information

All members of Lincoln Quilters Guild are encouraged to consider exhibiting some of their work in the 2012 quilt show. The following guidelines will help members plan their entries and help Quilt Show volunteers with the proper display and return of items.

Please read carefully before completing registration form(s)!

- Exhibitors must be members of Lincoln Quilter Guild unless exhibiting by invitation of the Quilt Show Committee.
- Items must not have previously been shown in an LQG quilt show unless by invitation of the Quilt Show Committee.
- Show categories are:

General – This includes bed quilts (crib to king), wall hangings, throws, miniatures, table runner or toppers, art quilts, etc. The item must hang flat; no dolls, garments, handbags, etc. A limit of 4 entries in this category per member will be allowed. One series of up to 4 pieces will be allowed per member and will count as one item.

Challenge – “Take Something Old and Let It's Sparkle Out”

Quilts of Valor (QOV) Made according to QOV guidelines, these quilts will be donated to the QOV project after the show and will not be returned to the maker.

Young Quilt Artists – Quilts made by LPS Bryan Focus School students

Intergenerational Quilting - Limit of two per child; quilt project done predominately by the child with help of LQG member.

- A separate registration form must be completed for each entry.
- All entries must be finished projects; hanging sleeves are not necessary for quilt show entry.
- All entries must be clean, smoke and odor free.
- A label with the entrant's name and the name of the piece must be permanently attached to each quilt.
- The exhibitor is responsible for insurance on their entries.
- Items entered in the quilt show may be photographed as video and flash cameras are allowed at the quilt show.

- All quilts must remain on display for the duration of the show. Quilts will not be released until the entire show has been taken down.
- Registration will be done online. If you do not have online access, contact the registrar at 402-423-3863 or at the Quilt Show table during Guild meetings.
- Online registration deadline for Challenge items is April 9th. Challenge items must be turned in at the April Guild meeting (April 9th)

Children "Quilt of Valor" blocks

Children will have a chance to "sparkle" at our quilt show as they try their hand at sewing blocks and creating a Quilt of Valor. Each child will sew two three-strip blocks in the rail fence pattern out of red, white, and blue fabric. They will keep one for themselves and contribute one to our quilt of valor. Here's how you can help with this project.

We need contributions of precut fabric strips in red, white or blue fabric. They should be cut 2½ x 6½ inches. You can bring these to the April or May meetings and put them at the show table or give them to Becky Haynes. We also need another sewing machine to use at the show that will simply sew straight seams AND we need volunteers to assist the children with their stitching.

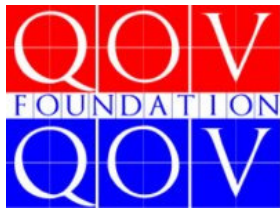

You can sign up for 1 to 3 hour shifts during the show hours – 10 am to 6:00 pm on Friday, Saturday or Sunday. This may be a good time to work on your own projects or make additional blocks for the children's quilt, as well.

Please contact Becky at 402-483-7020 (leave a message) or at haynes1213@aol.com. Thank you for building our quilting future and helping children honor our soldiers.

Quilt Drop-off info

All quilts entered in the LQG Quilt Show 2012 should be delivered to the Weary Center (Nebraska Wesleyan Campus-corner of No. 53rd & Huntington) on Tuesday, May 15 between the hours of 7:30 am and 7:00 pm. If you are not able to deliver your entries or make arrangements for someone to do so for you during this time period, please make special arrangements prior to May 15 with Judy Lane, phone: 402-466-4541, email: judithblane@yahoo.com.

NOTE: If you are not able to pick up your quilt at the end of the show, you must give a signed permission note with the name of the person picking up your quilt to the quilt drop-off personnel when you deliver your quilt prior to the show.

QOV Challenge for Guild Quilt Show!

Each member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild is challenged to make a QOV for the May 2012 Quilt Show.

QOVs will be displayed upstairs and along the railings in the Quilt Show venue, and will be awarded after the show (you will not get your QOV back after the show).

Help us cover our wounded warriors.

Long-armers needed to quilt QOVs.

Quilters provide pieced tops and backings, and if needed, batting. Long-armers are asked to provide thread and quilting services.

Contact: Sara Kenny (sara@qovf.org or 402-960-6560) or Julia Schroeder (julias@qovf.org or 402 483-1763).

Thank you in advance for your help!

Frequent Asked Questions:

Size: Lap size to twin bed size (meaning minimum width of the quilt should be 55" and maximum width is 72"; minimum length is 65" and maximum length is 90").

Fabric: 100% cotton, best quality you can afford.

Color: Red, white and blue QOVs are the most popular but other "guy" colors are good, too. Please avoid feminine or juvenile prints

Pattern: your choice

Quilting: machine quilted, not tied (you are invited to bring your finished tops and backings to the Guild meetings and we will find a long-armer to quilt for you)

Label: quilter/s' name/s, location, date, QOV and leave a space for the recipient's name (labels can be downloaded from www.QOVF.org)

Pillowcase: coordinating with your QOV to be used as a presentation case for the QOV.

White Glovers needed for the Quilt Show

Volunteers will be needed for the Spring Quilt show. There are shifts of 2 hours on Thursday night, Friday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm, Saturday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm and on Sunday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. The basic shift is 10:00 am to Noon, Noon to 2:00 pm, 2:00 to 4:00 pm, etc. I would be willing to accommodate anyone's 2-hour shift they wanted to work. 8-10 volunteers are wanted per shift – hope folks will sign-up early for their choice of schedule.

A great way to see the quilts "up close and personal" and to visit with people who love quilts for 2 hours. If someone wants to sign up for White Glove , sign-up sheets will be at the May meeting.

Viewers' Choice Awards 2012 Quilt Show

Remember, you can have some input in this year's Quilt Show as our Viewers Choice Awards!

We want to challenge you to try new and different things in your quilting... will it fit in any these categories? It does NOT have to fit into a category to be in the show. But it might be fun to make something for the show that will fit in a category.

At the same time, we want to make the voting interesting for the viewers!

- Appliqué
- Pieced
- hand quilted
- machine quilted
- Sparkle
- challenge: if you enter the challenge, your quilt will automatically be in this category
- youth participation = child helped make a significant portion of the quilt.
- funniest/humor/ whimsical
- polka dot/stripes
- mixed media
- holiday: any holiday
- QOV
