*Quilting Modern: Honoring Tradition
Lecture and Trunk Show
Featuring Jacquie Gering
March 10, 2014*

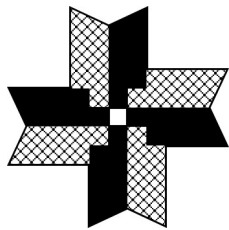

Jacquie shares her journey from being a maker, to becoming a quilter, and now a modern quilter, designer and author. Jacquie tells about her Mennonite roots, how her family inspires and influences her work, and shows through her quilts how she has developed her unique voice in modern quilting. Learn what makes a quilt modern from one of the leaders of the modern quilting movement. For more information, visit Jacquie's blog:

President's Message

Welcome back everyone – I hope you had a great winter break and wonderful holidays.

Let me tell you a little about myself. My name is Linda Daiker and I've been sewing all my life. I started quilting around 1994 when I took some quilting classes at SECC where I met several great ladies who invited me to join their small quilt group. I joined LQG around 1996 and then attended my first Quilt Nebraska in 1998. I have always considered myself a traditional quilter, but in the last couple years I have enjoyed making a few contemporary quilts. Now I'm ready to move into the Modern quilt world. I'm going to take Jacquie Gering's class to start this new phase.

We have an exciting year ahead with great speakers and classes. Check out the classes on the website. I hope you find a class that calls out to you. The classes are a great way to meet other Guild members and it's always fun to see everyone's color choices.

This year the Guild is sponsoring a Mystery Quilt for our members. The mystery quilt will replace the Friendship Block Exchange for this year. Each month the new clue will be posted on the website, in the Plain Print and some copies will be available at the meetings. There will be a total of 7 clues. I love mystery quilts but sometimes the colors aren't quite what I expected. Consider using patriotic fabrics or children's prints. The quilt would make a wonderful donation to Quilts of Valor or Cuddle Quilts. More information will be available at the March meeting.

Remember we have our Quilt Show in July. Have you made (or started) items for the auction? There is still time to finish quilts for the show.

I look forward to seeing everyone March 10.

Linda Daiker

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - November 11, 2013

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Sandy Anderson called the meeting to order at 7 PM with a welcome. She reminded everyone to silence cell phones. Photos may not be taken during the PowerPoint portion of the presentation. Vice-President Vicky Skuodas introduced Dorothy Heidemann-Nelson and her Trunk Show of functional and "dysfunctional" quilts.

Mary Sedlak reviewed 2014 speakers and workshops as listed on a bookmark placed on each chair. She showed examples of the types of projects planned for the March and April workshops.

The business meeting convened at 8:00 PM. There being no additions or corrections, the Minutes of the October 2013 meeting were approved as printed in Plain Print, and the October 2013 Treasurer's report was remanded for audit.

Old Business. None

New Business. Millie Fauquet and Gloria Smith donated a copy of Quilters Travel Companion, 20th Year, which they had received from a vendor at the Quilt Expo.

Announcements: President-elect Linda Daiker made the following announcements: Thank you notes were received from Lora Rocke (October speaker), Kris Vierra (State Fair Award recipient), and Sheila Green (Life Member Award recipient). Cuddle quilt kits can be picked up tonight, completed, and returned at the March meeting. The 2015 incoming Vice Presidents want input for speakers; pick up and complete a purple form to share your ideas. The Quilted Conscience Project still needs funds to cover the cost of quilting the project, which will be hung at Sheldon Art Gallery in the spring. February 14, 2014 is the next newsletter deadline. Eight visitors were welcomed. Items for the website must be approved by the President; contact Linda Daiker prior to submitting an item for posting. The 2014 State Fair guidelines have changed (categories and number of categories in which a quilt can be shown.) More information will be included in the next newsletter.

Friendship Blocks. Gloria Smith announced that two people had stitched 10 blocks. The winner was Jane Grabenstein-Chandler. Gloria also reminded everyone that the 2014 Quilt Show challenge quilt has a size limitation of 16x20-inches; she encouraged everyone to participate.

Mini-Raffle. Barb Brown and Kathy Spitsen conducted the Mini-Raffle, with proceeds of $154 going to the Santa Socks project. Winners were: Deb Scherer – a hand-stitched project book, scissors, hoop, and needle provided by an anonymous donor; Sheila Warren – a tree wall hanging donated by Joni Sauter; Rosalind Carr – a basket of jams and jellies donated by Sandy Wade & a green clutch purse donated by Caren Wagner; and Annie Nygren (daughter of Megan Patent-Nygren) a quilt book and "Cold Winter Noses" kit.

Santa Socks. Twenty-three socks were included in the voting and many more were made for the project. Voting brought in $250 to purchase items for the socks. First place winner was Patty Shelley, second place was Kathy Spitsen, and third place was Jaynee Wolfe.

Quilt Fest. Pam Rowland thanked everyone who helped at Quilt Expo, where 125 quilt raffle tickets were sold. That brings to 1,531 the total number sold prior to guild night. See Pam for tickets. Vicky Skuodas, auction chair, reminded everyone that donations are needed, and she showed the first donation. Mary Swinton, member of the steering committee, announced that Sue McKee needs donations of bed sheets for set up and take down. Four months remain to work on auction quilts, challenge quilts, or regular entries. Mary reviewed the categories and noted that one must be a member in order to enter a quilt in the show. Sheila Green remarked that the value of the double booth LQG had at Quilt Expo was $1,400, but was free in exchange for hanging more than 50 quilts. She thanked those who hung and took down that show.

National Quilting Day at the IQSCM. Eighty volunteers are needed on Saturday, March 15. Provide your contact information to Sheila Green and she will be in touch to schedule a time to volunteer. Sheila reviewed the program for the day, including speakers and demonstrations. NQD is sponsored by LQG and NSQG, with two commercial sponsors in 2014: HandiQuilter and AccuQuilt.

Installation of Officers. Kim Shelley, Chair of the Nominating Committee, installed the 2014 officers:

Linda Daiker – President,
Kathy Spitsen – President-elect,
Sara Kenny and Mary Sedlak – Vice Presidents,
Barb Brown and Joyce Pope – Vice Presidents-elect,
Wilma Daddario – Secretary,
Marsha Conley – Treasurer,
Carolyn McCall – Treasurer-elect,
and Sandy Anderson – Advisor.
Sandy Anderson passed the gavel and notebook to Linda Daiker.

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned to Show and Tell at 8:50 PM.

Minutes submitted by Barbara Caron, LQG Secretary

Rule Changes for Quilts Displayed at Nebraska State Fair

There are two important rule changes for quilts displayed at the Nebraska State Fair starting in 2014.

1. A quilt previously entered in any one of the Divisions 5320, 5330 or 5390 (one person quilts, group quilts or special contests) will no longer be eligible to compete a second or third year in any of these divisions regardless of the placing the quilt received at previous Nebraska State Fairs. Note that this rule change does not affect entries in Best-in-County Contest, Division 5391 where the entry can be brought back a second year to the Quilt Department if entered in Division 5320, 5330 or 5390 or vice versa provided that the quilt still meets the 3-year completion date rule.

2. It is no longer required that all persons involved in making a group quilt (Division 5330) be Nebraska residents. We will still require that the primary maker or makers of the quilt top be Nebraska residents, but the quilting portion (the layering of the top, batting and back together) will no longer have to be done by a Nebraska resident. In the past, the NSF Quilt Department required that all portions of all entries including the quilting had to be done by a Nebraska resident. We recognize that this was limiting to many, especially to those living close to our state borders where a member of a group making the top or the commercial quilter of choice was not a Nebraska resident. For this reason, we are relaxing the residency requirement. Note that, as in the past, all entries in Division 5320 (one person quilts) must still be made by Nebraska residents only.

If you have questions, feel free to contact Jan Sittler, Nebraska State Fair Superintendent

Special QOV sew-in event Friday, April 25 at Lincoln Bernina Sewing Studio in the Piedmont Shopping Center. Bring your own QOV project, machine and basic sewing supplies and enjoy a day of fun and sewing. For more info, contact Judy Lane, Julia Schroeder or Sara Kenny LQG QOV group participated in QOV Foundation National Sewing Day on Feb 1 at the Lincoln Bernina Studio. Our 18 sewers joined 1,350 QOVers across the country who spent the day sewing for QOV and working toward awarding 100,000 Quilts of Valor to wounded warriors and combat veterans touched by war.

There is still time to help with the Honor Flight QOV effort! Our goal is to cover 130 Honor Flight veterans with Quilts of Valor, and we are well on our way, but we need your help! Please consider making a Quilt of Valor for a Nebraska Honor Flight veteran, all of whom are Korea War veterans. In addition, we are making cuddle quilts for the 50 middle school students from Lincoln's St Mary's School who are singing a sendoff for the next Honor Flights in March. For more information, contact Vicky Skoudas, Julia Schroeder or Sara Kenny.

LQG's own Laura Lenzen will be the Quilt Superintendent for the 2014 Lancaster County Super Fair in August. Laura will be asking LQG community outreach groups (QOV, cuddle quilts, etc) to set up displays and participate at the Fair. All are invited to the Fair and all are invited to submit a quilt to the Fair.

NATIONAL QUILTING DAY 2014

Saturday, March 15, 9:00 am to 3:00pm

International Quilt Study Center & Museum, 33rd & Holdrege

Your help is needed! Contact Sheila Green (402-483-0453) if you can help. Help is needed for the shifts that run from 11-1 and 1-3. If you do handwork that you could demonstrate, help is needed from noon-3pm.

National Quilting Day 2014 will be our fifth annual FREE community event. Once again, visitors will enjoy free museum admission, demonstrations, lectures, and tours of the current exhibitions. AccuQuilt, Handi Quilter and Aurifil Thread are this year's commercial sponsors. You may choose to attend in the morning OR the afternoon, as both times will offer the same lectures, displays and demonstrations!

1st Floor Lectures:

10:00 & 1:00 – Carolyn Ducey, IQSCM Curator of Collections, "The Whole Story"

10:30 & 1:30 – Paulette Peters, "Plop a Picture"

11:00 & 2:00 – Studio Art Quilt Associates, "Art Quilts" by Peg Pennell

11:30 & 2:30 – Gloria Miller, "Log Cabin Quilts"

Go Tell It at the Quilt Show! This new Quilt Alliance project captures the stories of quilts where quiltmakers and quilt lovers gather as one person talks about one quilt in front of one video camera for three minutes. Have your picture taken with our "Photo Frame!" The museum's second floor will feature Studio Art Quilt Associates and their exhibition of 12" square art quilts. Visit with their members and learn more about art quilts! Lincoln Quilters Guild outreach projects will be featured-Habitat for Humanity, Santa Socks and the Young Quilt Artist program. What's new in the quilting industry? Handi Quilter, Accu Quilt and Aurifil will have all the latest machines and products for you to see. Museum guests can tour the quilt exhibitions in the galleries. Community Showcase will feature Log Cabin quilts! On the third floor, you'll have an opportunity to watch our volunteers demonstrating various hand sewing techniques-appliqué, quilting, beading, embellishing and more! Don't miss the museum's exhibit of doll quilts and visit with maker, Jackie Greenfield.

Pick up bookmarks to share with your friends at the LQG table!

Quilt Displays

We are looking for quilts of all shapes and sizes, including 3-D items, quilts made by MEN, Intergenerational Quilts (you and your child, grandchild or neighbor with a majority of the work done by the child), MODERN quilts and Tradition with a Twist Challenge Quilts! We know you won't disappoint our guests! Lorelee Novak will have quilt registration forms available at the April LQG meeting. However, we prefer that you register your quilt online at www.LincolnQuiltersGuild.org

Vendor Mall

Our Vendor Mall will be spacious and well lit! Vendor registrations have been mailed and we've already received requests for booths. If you know of a business who may like to be a vendor, contact us and we will send them the vendor application. There will be a variety of booth sizes and prices, all in a prime location for great sales! Contact Sheila Green or Joan Yoder.

Attic Treasures

This is the time to bring your gently used treasures for Quiltfest! Quiltfest guests will be able to purchase the pre-priced treasures and take them home right away! New items will be added as the show progresses. All sorts of quilting, sewing and needlework related items are wanted: fabric, finished and unfinished projects, kits, quilt blocks, small quilts, pillows, books, patterns, quilting and/or sewing notions, lights, magnifiers, yarn, quilt related decor OR, other items quilters would like: candy, tea/coffee, bed or bath items (lotion, shower gel, etc.). No magazines, please. Contact Pat Gormley or Phyllis Higley

Raffle Quilt Travels!

The raffle quilt will be at the Cosmic Cow until March 1. It will be showcased at National Quilting Day at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum on Saturday, March 15! We're hoping for excellent sales!

Tickets will be available for you to purchase (and re-sell to your friends) at the upcoming guild meetings. Don't forget to bring your checkbook! Buying raffle tickets is a great way to support LQG, our outreach projects and excellent monthly programs. If you belong to another guild or organization and would like to take the raffle quilt to show, contact Quilt Mom, Pam Rowland!

International Quilt Study
Center & Museum

A Listing of IQSCM's Exhibitions opening early 2014 :

"Design Dynamics of Log Cabins"

Opens March 2014

"Design Dynamics of Log Cabin Quilts" from the Jonathan Holstein Collection present a stunning group of quilts that represent the variety found in this most popular of late-nineteenth century patterns. Quilts in this exhibition were drawn from the Jonathan Holstein Collection, one of the most well-known quilt collections in the United States.

"Modern Marvels: Quilts Made from Kits, 1915-1950"

Opens June 2014

Quilt scholars recently became aware of just how many surviving Depression-era quilts were made from commercially-marketed kits. Using a kit to make a quilt seemed modern and efficient to the women of the 1930s.

"Modern Marvels: Quilts Made from Kits, 1915-1950" demonstrates that women could and did use kits coupled with their own needlework skills to produce a dazzling array of beautiful quilts.

Quilt Identification Days

Learn more about your quilt's history at Quilt Identification Days scheduled throughout the year at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. Staff and trained volunteers examine quilts and offer information about patterns, fabrics, styles and estimated age. A history form and documentation label is be completed for each quilt.

Remaining 2014 Quilt Identification Day dates:

May 18 Aug. 17 Nov. 15

Call 402-472-6549 to reserve a time slot for the next Quilt Identification Day. You can also complete the registration form online at <http://www.quiltstudy.org/education/quiltid/day/register.html>. Cost is $15 per quilt, plus museum admission for non-members, and $10 per quilt for museum members.

"Beyond the Binding: Every Quilters Extraordinary Quilts"

Presented by the FRIENDS of the IQSCM, featuring Marianne Fons and Mary Fons on Saturday, April 19 Lecture and Reception $50, Lecture only $30. Tickets will be at the March LQG meeting or by sending a check made out to FRIENDS to J. Eskridge, 128 N. 13, Apt. 1007, Lincoln, NE 68508
