The Heartstrings Story

Lecture (Monday August 11, 2014):

Mary (Mollie) Johnson is a self-taught quilter with a focus on blogging, designing, knitting and organizing the HeartStrings Quilt Project. Mollie is a wife, mother, grandmother, reading enthusiast, knitter, quilter, and world traveler.

Heartstrings is an online group of quilters who have joined together to make and donate String Quilts to local charitable organizations. Members contribute to group quilts through donating blocks, assembling and quilting tops.

The HeartStrings Quilt Project grew out of a casual exchange of postings to the Stashbuster Yahoo group in December 2006. Focused on using our fabric stashes, a number of us expressed interest in getting involved in making quilts to be donated to various charities. At first, it was intended to be a short term initiative, but the interest from members of the group was very strong, so the idea was enlarged to accommodate quilters of all levels of experience, living in different parts of the world, and making string quilts over an extended period of time.

A separate Yahoo group was established – the HeartStrings Quilt Project – and guidelines developed that would enable quilters to be involved in this project in a number of ways. This website was set up so that even those who chose not to formally belong to the HeartStrings Quilt Project online group could access the information about the project and contribute as they wished.

The outcome is a network of quilters mostly living in the USA, but some in Australia, and others elsewhere around the globe, who are linked by their love of quiltmaking and the joy they feel in creating something for those in need.

President's Message

Hello everyone,

Welcome to August! When we get together for the August meeting, it will mean my summer is over. On Wednesday after the meeting, my granddaughter, Ashlynn, goes back to school. Our fun play time will be over. When she goes back to school, I have to get busy and complete some of the many quilting projects that have been sitting in my sewing room all summer.

I'm hoping for a long fall, with comfortable days and nights and lots of fall colors. Since our July meeting I've gone to Quilt Nebraska in North Platte and Ashlynn went to Quilt Camp in Lincoln for 5 days. I'm looking forward to some relaxing fall days.

Here at the Guild we still have lots to do. If you have some free time, remember Cuddle Quilts, Santa Socks and Quilts of Valor always need help with sewing. Cuddle Quilts always have kits to be completed. Of course, you can always make quilts for Cuddle Quilts and Quilts of Valor using your own patterns and fabrics. They really love to receive completed projects. Start sewing Christmas stockings for the Santa Socks project. Also, Habitat for Humanity can use handmade pillowcases. So many sewing projects – so little time!

I look forward to seeing all of you at the August meeting.

Happy stitching,

Linda

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild – July 14, 2014 College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church – Lincoln, Nebraska

President Linda Daiker welcomed members and guests.

Mary Sedlak introduced the speaker, Diane Harris for her program "100 Small Quilts."

Sara Kenny reviewed the successful Studio Tour in June – 165 tickets were sold. "Vases" with fabric bouquets were awarded to the members who made their studios available for the tour:

Margrethe Ahlschwede, Ronda Bieber, Sheila Green, Vicky Skuodas, Elizabeth Sterns, and Kris Vierra. Helpers Judy Lane and Kathy Powers were acknowledged as well as the group furnishing the bouquets. The July class is sold out and only three spaces remain in the August class for string quilts. There is space left in the September class, Susan Cleveland with "Piping Hot Macaroni", the October "Hobo Quilts" class and the November "Split Personality" class.

The business meeting was called to order, and President Daiker expressed thanks to the studio tour and the quilt show committee for outstanding work. There being no additions or corrections, the Minutes of the May 2014 meeting were approved as printed in Plain Print, and the May 2014 Treasurer's report was remanded for audit.

New Business: President Daiker presented the proposal of the board with the rationale for a dues increase for the coming year.

Starting last year, the Board began talking about our budget short fall and the probability of raising dues for next year. This was brought to your attention several times last year and earlier this year. The annual budget for this year is approximately $27,000 and with the income expected for this year, it will be necessary to use some of our savings to cover our expenses for the year. We are now about half way through this budget year and our finances show that our Finance committee was right on target with the budget. We do have money in savings to cover all of our expenses for the rest of this year. However, we need to make some changes so that we are not using savings each year. LQG offers great programs and that is our largest expense for the year. There really are several reasons for the shortfall for this year

- The quilt show in 2012 was successful and we grossed a little more than $8,000. That amount was to be split over 2 years to cover our expenses. However, we changed our fiscal year and in doing so, last year was actually about 18 months long and we had 12 meetings and programs during that time, but we all paid our normal $25 dues and received more programs for that amount. So the income from the quilt show (May 2012) was split so that last year received about 2/3 of the income and this calendar year received about 1/3 of the income.

- Several years ago, the Guild started a senior citizen price on the dues. Anyone 65 and older pays only $15.00 a year, while those under 65 pay $25.00 a year. DeEtte (our membership chair) pulled together information that is current as of last week on membership numbers. We have exactly 300 paid members. Of that 300, 136 members paid $15.00, 157 members paid $25, 4 members paid $20, and 4 life members did not pay. (Life members do not have to pay, but many do pay full price and some pay reduced price. I want to say thank you to life members who pay dues.)

- Our newsletter is available on our website. You receive an email notice that the newsletter is ready and the email contains a link to take you directly to the newsletter. Some members still receive newsletters by regular mail. After paying the cost of printing those newsletters and paying postage to mail them, each newsletter costs approximately $1.40 each. If a member pays $15.00 dues and receives the newsletter by mail, most of their dues goes to cover the cost of their newsletter, leaving very little to help pay the expenses of the guild. I would like to ask you, if you pay reduced dues and receive your newsletter by regular mail, would you consider paying full dues.

The Board checked other Guilds in the state. We discovered that almost all of the guilds have dues of $35.00 a year or more. No other Guild in the state offers senior prices. Also some Guilds charge a fee for guests to attend meetings to see the programs of certain well known quilters.

The Board of Lincoln Quilters Guild is proposing an increase of our dues to $35.00 per year and $25.00 for senior citizens and those under age 19. We would also like to say that if you enjoy our speakers, would you consider paying full dues of $35.00 a year. This is an unbelievable great value to see 9 outstanding programs or events each year.

Old Business: No old business was discussed.

Announcements: Kathy Spitsen made the following announcements: A thank you was received from a young girl who visited the quilt show and made a quilt from the $1.00 scraps. Other thank you messages were received from two cancer survivors for the quilts they received, a Heart Hospital patient who received a quilt, and from the Cancer Survivors Day committee. Kathy read notices of quilting books and services for sale as well as notes from those interested in hiring quilting services and indicated this information was posted on the bulletin board.

Sara Kenny announced that clue #5 is ready for those working on the Mystery Quilt.

Lori Bain from the Omaha Modern Quilt Guild announced that the Lincoln Quilt Guild is serving as a collection point for quilts made for Beaver Crossing and Pilger residents. She thanked all of the guild members for their help.

Barb Clement and Jean Ang thanked everyone who helped cut the 5" squares that are used to make the "Compassion Quilts" for Beaver Crossing and Pilger tornado victims. They have 15 sets of blocks for quilts and need help for assembling quilt tops and quilting. All were on the table on the side of the room. Quilts are due August 12 and distribution will be done on August 17. Leslie Reed described the 4 days of activities for the Fall Retreat at the Eastern Nebraska 4-H camp. Cost will be about $145 for Thursday – Sunday and about $105 for Friday – Sunday. Meals are provided for Friday – Sunday and registration will be on the web site. No registrations will be accepted until September 1 and there is a maximum of 80 attendees.

Cheryl Kupcinski and Kay Hoff announced the proceeds from the mini-affle were $87.27 and will go to the Young Artist's program. Sandy Anderson won an instructional quilting CD, Donna Welty won a mini-quilt and Lori Miller also won a mini-quilt.

Minutes con't next page

July 14, 2014 Minutes con't:

The Quilt Show Committee thanked everyone for their help. Attendance was 1520 and bills are still coming in so no final figures are available at this time. A note to all for the next show – it would be very helpful if members would register their quilts early instead of waiting until the last few days so the committee can anticipate how many will be coming. The helpfulness of the staff at St. Mark's church was greatly appreciated as they even allowed listing the quilt show on their electronic billboard. Sheila Green announced that the Nebraska State Quilt Guild needs a chair for the "Quilt Nebraska 2016" which will meet in Lincoln. They would like to have the chair in place within the next week or so, so anyone interested, please contact Sheila or the state guild. President Daiker adjourned the meeting to Show and Tell.

Lecture/Trunk show
My Eclectic Quilt Pageant

Using simple designs, attention to detail, fine workmanship, and special binding techniques, Susan has created her own unique style. Many of her quilts have received awards at international shows and she enjoys sharing tips and tricks to add panache to simple quilts and take heirloom pieces to new heights. Real quilts will be shared, then details will be displayed via video camera and projector.

Workshop

Piping Hot Curves-Macaroni

(Please check Susan's website for list of supplies and fabric requirements! Teacher will have pattern, cording, some YLI #100 silk thread, and the Clover ball-point awl available for purchase in class.)

Add piping to curves and avoid curved piecing! This technique is wonderful for traditional curved patterns and great for contemporary designs. In class, students will learn to make perfect piping and add that piping to the lively, curvy macaroni block. Piping adds pizzazz! Quilting and finishing will be discussed, 29"x29" or 49"x69".

Lincoln Quiltfest 2014: Colors from the Prairie

Successful Show! I think that sums up the facts and our feelings about the show. Hard working committee chairs and volunteers contributed to a great show. It was a precision machine, from registration to drop-off, to hanging, to the show coming down and all quilts were returned to their owners. We put on a great show, involved most of our members, shared our love of quilting with the community and beyond. St. Mark's United Methodist was a fantastic facility for our show. We were frugal with our expenses and received great free publicity from local media. The financials will be shared when finalized. Attendance was great! 1520 total attendees. An all time high for an LQG show. Great volunteers and camaraderie! Our friends, neighbors and co-workers enjoyed shopping in our Vendor Mall and Attic Treasures and enjoyed the great food in the Cafe. Lectures and Demonstrations were well attended with 35-60 guests in each session. Many guests sat down to sew blocks and quilt tops for tornado victims. Children enjoyed the scavenger hunt and other activities provided. Quilts! We had a wonderful assortment of quilts for our guests to view-our members registered 335 entries (Including Men's, Modern, Intergenerational, Series) plus the Tradition with a Twist Challenge Quilts, Auction quilts, the Log Cabin quilts on loan from the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, dating from 1870, our Outreach projects, quilts being made and over 20 donated for families in Pilger and Beaver Crossing through Quilts for Compassion and the fabulous quilts in our Vendor's displays! All total, 710 quilts could be viewed at Quiltfest!

Tradition with a Twist Challenge was judged by Jack Saltzman. 1st place winner Marilyn Rembolt, 2nd place winner Mary Swinton, 3rd place winner Anita Dover. Raffle Quilt winner was Robert Wakeman of Kokomo, Indiana. Robert purchased his ticket from his sister, Pam Wakeman, LQG member.

We are grateful to the staff of St. Mark's United Methodist Church for their welcoming and spacious facility! We worked closely with Terry Bowers, event organizer and head custodian who was so helpful. He was always ready to accommodate our needs. We were also able to advertise our show on their electronic sign. Thanks to the local media: Lincoln Journal Star, 55+, Prime Time, Lincoln Kids, Neighborhood Extra, KOLN TV, KFOR Radio, IQSCM and Lincoln Tourism for their assistance in publicizing the show.

Thanks to Jack Saltzman for judging our Challenge quilts. Also thanks to Col. Linda Underwood for calling the Auction, and AccuQuilt for lending quilts for the lecture.
