

Volume 43, Number 1

March 2016

Guild Meeting: Monday, March 14, 2016
Speaker: Peg Pennell
Program: You've Come a Long Way Baby

Peg Pennell is a native Nebraskan, born and raised in Omaha. While enjoying all aspects of working with textiles, she is particularly attracted to quilts as the medium for expressing herself. Peg has been teaching quilting skills to others for more than 25 years and has won over 200 ribbons and awards, both locally and internationally, for her work. After being commissioned to do a piece for a lobby in a business, she found she enjoyed making art for others to view. Hoping to enlighten the public that quilts are not just bed coverings, she continues to search out venues that will show her work in a gallery setting. Her pieces are quilts.....but they are also art. Her trunk show is a look back at quilting from the time Peg began in the early 1970's to today. We all started somewhere and Peg shares her humble quilt beginnings. Peg's humorous narrative is bound to make the audience think back to their own quilt histories, successes and follies alike, with a smile.

Class: Terrific Techniques by Machine

Instructor: Peg Pennell

Date: Tuesday, March 15, 2016 Time: 9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Learn helpful skills to add to your "bag of tricks" and use them on the projects of your choice when you get home from class. In class you will be learning to set in rounded shapes without pins, how to insert "pick-up sticks" into a finished block or quilt and how to foundation piece without sewing through the paper. No need to go out and buy any new fabric or gadgets. Use things you already have on hand to expand the possibilities for your own work. Come ready for a fun, relaxed class filled with tips and tricks to help make your quilting more interesting and effortless!

President's Message

2016 marks not only my term as Lincoln Quilters Guild president, but also my 20th year as a member of the Guild. As this year's president, I have been thinking a lot about LQG's profound significance in my life.

When I first began attending Guild meetings, I was a complete quilting novice. I had only stitched a few items, and everything I knew was from quilt books and "trial and error" – with a lot of emphasis on "error." At my initial LQG meetings, I was in awe of the amazing pieces displayed by guest speakers during their presentations and by Guild members during Show-and-Tell. I thought that there was no way I could make quilts like that. Despite my feelings of inferiority, I kept coming to meetings anyway. Over time, I began to feel less intimidation and more inspiration. As a result, I have grown both as an artist and as a person.

Just as a quilter continues to evolve and grow, so does an organization. LQG will keep evolving in many ways this year – including programs, outreach, Quilt Show, website, social media, and new members. I look forward to all of us working together to ensure that Lincoln Quilters Guild continues to inspire and encourage future generations of quilters for years to come.

Kimberly Shelley, LQG President 2015/2016

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - November 9, 2015

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Kathy Sus Spitsen welcomed everyone and recognized our guests and we invited them to join the Guild. Barb Brown introduced our speaker: Chris Kirsch

The meeting was called to order.

There were no additions or corrections to the minutes so they were approved as printed in the Plain Print.

There were no additions or corrections to the treasurer's report so it was remanded for audit.

New Business

Pat Kant and Carol Curtis reported on next year's programs. March's speaker will be Peg Pennell. Her class will be about techniques and will cover setting in ovals, creating pointed borders and doing pickup sticks set-ins. Contact Carol or Pat to enroll in the class. Cost is $40 for guild members and $50 for non-members. Peg will have her trunk show "You've Come A Long Way Baby" at the meeting.

Old Business

Lois Wilson reported on an upcoming OLLI class that members of LQG put together. It will be on Wednesday afternoons from 1-2:30pm at IQSCM starting January 27th and will continue for 6 weeks. Topics to be covered are: The History and Value of Quilts; Quilts in the Community; Quilts: The Creative Process; The director, Leslie Levy will tell the story of Quilt House; the History, Genealogy and Documentation of Quilts; and lastly, a tour of the Quilt House. Watch the OLLI website or watch the paper for the registration announcement or contact their office 402-472-6265 to enroll. It should be a fun class.

Sherry Taylor and Kathy Morgan reported on the 2016 Quilt Show. They reminded everyone that this event will take place October 6-8th 2016 at St. Mark's Methodist Church. The raffle tickets are $2 apiece this year and are now available for members to pick up and sell. They read through the list of the various committee chairs for the quilt show.

Show Chairs – Kathy Morgan and Sherry Taylor

Vendors – Kathy Junker and Angela Shipmar

Volunteer Name Tags – Donna Welte

They reminded members that we now have 3 months off to work on projects.

Therefore, they're adding an additional challenge to the show in addition to the regular challenge. Everyone should make a pincushion; there is no fee – it can be a kit, from a pattern, a repurposed item or your own original creation. There is no size limitation.

All entries will be auctioned off to raise money for the Guild's projects and programs.

Progress on the quilt show will be posted on the Guild website and on Facebook.

National Quilting Day is Saturday, March 19th at IQSCM. Unfortunately, our next meeting is just before this. Sheila Green needs approximately 80 volunteers to help at this event. Please contact her to sign up – the earlier you sign up the more choice you have on where you help. If you're not sure if you'll be available, Sheila will put you on a special list and will contact you in February in regards to your availability. They have 3 national sponsors:

AcuQuilt, Aurafil, and HandiQuilter.

Our local sponsors are Cosmic Cow, Sew Creative, and Calico House.

Holly Zemke, our scholarship recipient, passed out a flyer on her thesis exhibition at the Hillestad Gallery. Red, White, & Green All Over – Traditions &

Variations of 19th –Century Applique will be on display November 23 –

February 5, 2016. She graduates in May and thanked the members for their support and the scholarship.

Elaine Martin promoted the upcoming Art Market at the Museum. This will be Friday, November 20th, 5-8pm and Saturday, November 21, 10am-4pm.

There are items from 17 artisans ranging from jewelry, painting, woodwork, hand dyed goods and other items.

Kim Shelley made the following announcements:

There was a thank you note from Joycelyn Moody of Pender, Ne who was the winner of the Best Contemporary Quilt Award at this year's State Fair.

LaDonna Pankoke, 402-484-0058, is looking for someone to make a couple of small memory quilts for an 11 and 9 year old. Materials would be from clothing from their deceased mother-in-law.

The IQSCM has a selection of small gifts for special people in the Quilt House gift shop. There will be a 10% discount on December 1-5th (museum members will receive an additional 5% off during the sale days.

On the mini-affle: a pattern and thread catcher was donated by Linda Crump and won by Holly Zemke. An embroidered fall miniquilt was donated by anonymous. It was won by Kay Hoff

A Santa mini quilt donated by anonymous in addition to a class registration fee to tomorrow's class donated by Laura Lentzen. These were won by Cindy Hanzel. Patterns in a basket donated by Kath

Conroy was won by Martha Lane. 3 winter quilt toppers were donated by

Ginny Welty and were won by Ginny Harvey

2 quilting books were donated by Pat Kant and were won by Pat Deisch

The raffle raised $131.00

Vicki Skuodas reminded everyone about cuddle quilts – there are sandwiches and kits ready to be picked up and worked on over our break.

She also reported on the Gold Star family event this past weekend. Gold Star families have lost a family member in one of the recent wars. There were 20 families with about 30 children. All the families had some tie to Nebraska.

Our Guild provided quilts to all of the children. She wished to thank all the

Minutes con't

Guild members who made quilts for this event.

Ginny Harvey and Linda Daiker wanted to thank everyone for contributing to the Santa Sock program over the course of this year. Tonight's stocking stuffer event raised $212 which will be spent to purchase items that are still needed. People voted for their favorite stocking by putting cash in the stocking.

3rd place went to Kathy Morgan

2nd place went to DeEtte Turgeon

1st place went to Anne Parrott

There were no nominations this year so there will be no awards this year.

Our speaker, Chris Kirsch will be teaching her Mariner's Compass technique in Fremont (Fremont Quilter's Guild) in March 2016. Our members are welcome to sign up.

There was the installation ceremony for the guild's new officers:

President	Kim Shelley
President Elect	Joan Yoder
Secretary	Pam Wakeman
Treasurer	Christina Chapman
Treasurer Elect	Carrie Knight
Vice Presidents for Programs	Pat Kant and Carol Curtis
Vice Presidents Elect for Programs	Donna Welte and Sherry Taylor
Advisor	Kathy Sus Spitsen

The officers were then installed by Board Advisor Linda Daiker.

President Kim Shelley presented a quilt to Kathy Sus Spitsen for her service to the Guild.

President Kim Shelley asked if there was any further business.

Kathy Spitsen thanked all the board members who supported and helped her this past year. She turned over the gavel, the fire alarm and the copy of Robert's Rules of Order to President Shelley.

The meeting was adjourned to Show & Tell.

NATIONAL QUILTING DAY

March 19, 2016

FREE EVENT

The 7th Annual National Quilting Day will be held at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, 33rd & Holdrege, Lincoln. Visitors will enjoy free parking, free museum admission, demonstrations, lectures, and an ala carte café from opening through lunch.

Lectures will begin at 10:00 a.m., and will repeat again starting at 1:00 p.m. Topics include: Go Tell it at the Quilt Museum, Holly Zemke; Man Made Quilts exhibition, Jonathan Gregory; Modern Quilting, Lincoln Modern Quilt Guild and What's New in Quilting? Leslie of Country Traditions.

Running continuously throughout the day will be Collection Care in Action in the Conservation Workroom where guests can learn from the experts how to properly care for textiles. Sit down, relax and enjoy the programs!

IMPROV in Action! Lincoln Modern Quilt Guild members will demonstrate and exhibit quilts featuring improvisation, tessellations and more! Sit and stitch with our volunteers as they demonstrate and display handwork techniques. Learn about the Cuddle Quilt Project and how anyone of any skill set can join in this worthy cause. The Community Showcase will feature a large exhibition of Cuddle Quilts and quilts made by men. And, back this year - have your picture taken in the giant "Photo Frame!"

Would you like to preserve the history of your family quilt(s)? Reserve a time to "Go Tell it at the Quilt Museum." One quilt--three minutes per video recording slot during National Quilting Day. Contact Holly, 919-395-5991.

What's new in the quilting industry? Accuquilt, Aurifil, Handi Quilter, as well as local shops; Calico House, Cosmic Cow/Udder Store and Sew Creative will have all the latest machines and products for you to see.

Expanded in June to double the exhibition space, Quilt House now offers so many more quilts to enjoy. Current exhibitions: Favorites from the Byron and Sara Rhodes Dillow Collection, Man Made Quilts, African American quilts from the Cargo Collection and quilts by Shizuko Kuroha.

The Lincoln Quilters Guild, established in 1973, is "Dedicated to Promoting and Preserving the Art of Quilting."

We hope that you will make plans to attend National Quilting Day 2016!

Bonnie Kucera - April 11, 2016

Trunk Show - From Ugly Ducklings to Shimmering Swans

“This program will share what I have learned on my travels and help you avoid some of my wrong turns. You will see what my first idea was and how it begat another which begat another until I found one that had that “Wow” factor because Ugly Ducklings really do become Shimmering Swans. “

Class - April 12, 2016

Field of Dreams in Squares

If you love to play with fabric and create something that is insanely easy, this is the class for you. STEP ONE you get to combine two fabrics that enhance each other. You play with fabric until the combo sings and you want to show someone how awesome you are. Once you get about a dozen done, you have to make yourself quit and proceed to STEP TWO which is arranging your groups so they all play well together, or not. STEP THREE involves zinger!

When you learn STEP FOUR you will be shaking your head and never tell anyone outside of the class because it is too easy for words.

And last but not least, you can stand proud when you show off your one-of-a-kind creation.

“Harmonics in the Community Showcase”

This showcase will be on exhibit March 22-April 16 at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, 33rd and Holdrege, Lincoln. Harmonics, a textile arts group including Zita Schneider, Marty Eischeid, Lois Wilson, Judy Lane, and Margrethe Ahlschwede, will be exhibiting all new pieces. The reception for this exhibit will be on the First Friday, April 1, 4:30-7:00 p.m., and members of the Lincoln Quilters Guild are especially invited to this event. No admission charge on First Friday beginning at 4:30 p.m. May through October IQSCM hours are 10-4, Tuesday-Saturday and Sundays 1-4.

We want to thank Judy Lane, the docents, and all the Quilt House staff for providing tours for our LQG speakers during the past year (and years preceding)! We know this involved many hours over the year that provided a wonderful experience for our guests and was great for the Quilt House!

We received such comments and thanks from all of our speakers for this truly special opportunity! Several of them are planning return trips on their own and definitely plan to “spread the word” about what a truly amazing place it is!

We are so fortunate to have the Quilt House in our community!

International Quilt Study
Center & Museum

The International Quilt Study Center & Museum is celebrating contemporary art quilts with a series of exhibitions this spring. The upcoming exhibits will feature works from regional, national and international artists · “Art Quilts of the Midwest” Drawn from pieces featured in Linzee Kull McCray’s book “Art Quilts of the Midwest,” the quilts selected for this exhibition hint at the ways Midwestern geography, weather, people and culture influence regional artists. The show will run two segments, the first Jan. 5 – March 5 and the second March 8 – May 8.

· “Man-Made: Contemporary Male Quilters” This traveling exhibition of 26 works from eight acclaimed artists will culminate at the IQSCM with a run Feb. 16 – June 19. With backgrounds in contemporary visual art, media, and fashion, the eight artists featured in the exhibition—Joe Cunningham, Luke Haynes, Jimmy McBride, Aaron McIntosh, Dan Olfe, Joel Otterson, Shawn Quinlan, and Ben Venom—have been identified as significant contributors to the evolution of the quilting medium. This exhibition was organized by the Craft & Folk Art Museum in Los Angeles, California. Join the IQSCM on March 4 from 4:30-7 p.m. for the exhibit’s opening reception, featuring a live performance from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln’s Bathtub Dogs at 5:30 p.m.

· “Blue Echoes: Quilts by Shizuko Kuroha” Japanese artist Shizuko Kuroha’s palette of antique indigo-dyed fabrics uses complex pattern and shading to create optical illusions that give her work a feeling of depth. Experience Kuroha’s harmonies, atmospheric effects, and “blue echoes” in the first ever solo exhibition by a Japanese artist at the IQSCM March 4 – May 25. The museum will hold the opening reception on Friday, April 1 from 4-7 p.m., featuring a talk from historian Teresa Wong at 4 p.m. and a lecture from the artist at 5:30 p.m.

· “Waypoint: Quilts by Maya Chaimovich” Israeli artist Maya Chaimovich had worked in woodcarving, jewelry, and several forms of fiber arts before discovering her passion for quilts. Her quilts, which have appeared in solo shows in England, France, Holland, Israel and the United States, will be on display at the IQSCM May 10 – Aug. 7.

Remember to Purchase your Raffle Tickets!

Don’t forget to purchase raffle tickets for the 2016 LQG Raffle Quilt, “American Pride,” made and donated by LQG member, Laura Lenzen. Please do your part by committing to sell 10, 20, or more raffle tickets and help us reach our goal of selling all of the tickets – all 2,499 of them - raising $4,998 for our Guild’s treasury!

Remember raffle quilt ticket sales are one of the major fundraising projects that make it possible for our members to continue to enjoy quality speakers and classes, community outreach programs, and a free library with current editions and authors, to name a few. Without our raffle ticket revenue, it’s very likely that we would see an increase in membership dues, or we would have to drop an activity or community project, or not be able to have as many national quilt designers teach and speak at our meetings.

Raffle tickets are $2 each and are available to purchase at every Guild meeting or by contacting the Raffle Quilt Moms, Joni Sauter (402-499-1858) and Joan Yoder (402-525-6826). We hope to see many of you stop by our table at the meeting.

THANK YOU to all Guild members who helped with the Nebraska Gold Star Family Weekend November 6-7, 2015. Thanks to all who made quilts, created bags, sewed in labels, delivered quilts and hugged kids and widows.

The photo of the 2 girls is kinda cute--both girls loved their quilts but they each liked the other's bag.....so they traded!

Thanks from Cuddle Quilts, Quilts of Valor and Quilts for Kids
