PROGRAM

Lincoln Quilters Guild - Quilting Since 1973 - Meeting second Monday of each month - September through May - 7:00 P.M.

...to all quilters everywhere!

See you at our January 9th meeting for a delightful program on "two of Nebraska's first famous quilters....Grace Snyder and Ernest Haight" presented by Mary Ghormley. Show and tell will include your oldest unfinished quilt.

DO YOU HAVE.....?

Does anyone have the Amish "cheater cloth" put out about a year ago by Concord? There were about 16 different designs on a panel, each about 9 inches square. It was printed in 2 color combinations, one with a brilliant blue predominating and the other more traditional with black, mauve, etc. I need the black/traditional one. Please call Stephanie Whitson at 423-4037.

SMALL SEWING GROUP NEWS

One of the small sewing groups formed last fall meets on the second Friday afternoon of each month. We call our group the "Wright Bunch" and we take turns meeting in our homes. The afternoon is spent working on our own projects, sharing ideas, visiting and having refreshments. Several in this group belong to more than one sewing group.

The "Wright Bunch" consists of Jo Baxter, Joann Curtiss, Carroll Dischner, Doris Gutzmer, LaDonna Pankoke, Joan Schwalm, Louise Ripa and Marion Wright.

Submitted slides should indicate the name of both the artist and the work, the date of its creation and the materials from which it was created.

The quilts may be contemporary, avant-garde or historical. Selection to participate in the show depends upon demonstrated high quality and excellence in artistic endeavor.

"ON THE ROAD AGAIN....."

It is time to begin preparations for this year's bus tour. (Yea!!!) There will be excitement galore on April 21st and 22nd as we travel back to the Amish country of Kalona, Iowa. This is the week before the annual quilt show, so the shops should be full of items, but without the crowds of last year.

Friday will be in Kalona with several hours spent at Sarah Miller's fabric shop.

Saturday we will be in the Amanas touring some of the colonies, with plenty of time to shop.

See Karalene Smith for registration forms at the Jan. 9th meeting. Tour cost will be $75.00 with half due by Feb. 15th and the remainder due by March 15th.

The trip will accomodate only 44 people so get your reservations in early!

The curator is looking for quilts representing a diversity of styles, time periods and geographical regions. The exhibit is to be held in Sao Paulo, Brazil - October 1989. Insurance and shipping costs to Brazil will be provided.

Please send slides to Lois Wilson, 5930 L Street, Lincoln, NE 68510 by January 15, 1989. All Quilt slides will be returned and should be accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

MORE NEWS IN PRINT

CAMELICIOUS...SO,...DELICIOUS!

Remember those wonderful "Turtle Brownies" from the October meeting? Well after "much thought" (about two seconds), Pam Moore decided to divulge the recipe. So she ran to the store and bought a Pillsbury brownie mix so she could check out the back of the box!! (Ho, Ho) and here it is:

Caramelicious Fudge Brownies (or Turtle Brownies)

Prepare and bake a 21 1/2oz. brownie mix according to package directions. (Pillsbury Deluxe Fudge is the mix Pam used) Meanwhile, in a small saucepan over low heat, melt 20 caramels with 3 tablespoons milk, stir until smooth. Immediately after removing brownies from oven, sprinkle with 1/2 cup semi sweet chocolate chips and 1/2 cup chopped pecans. Drizzle with caramel. Cool completely before cutting. Yield about 24 bars.

"HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS" - UPDATE

For those of you who haven't heard, our Home for the Holidays Show at NBC was a big success and we are especially pleased to announce that Jo Morton was the "big winner" of our raffle quilt! We are thrilled that our quilt went to a good home!
