

Plain Print

Lincoln Quilters Guild • Quilting Since 1973 • Meeting second Monday of each month • Sep. through May, 7:00

"I scream, you scream...we all scream for ice-cream" and a reunion with our quilting friends!

...and the September 10th meeting will give us just what we want! Beginning at 6:45 with the ice-cream social. (As usual there is a $.50 donation.)

September's meeting will feature two mini programs. The "Names Project-Aids Memorial Quilt" by Gayle Brygger and "NQA Knoxville '90/NQA Lincoln '91" by Judy Lane.

Both program should be inspirational to us all. See you there!

5th Annual Lincoln-Omaha Retreat

October 5,6, 7, 1990
Eastern NE 4-H Center
Gretna, Nebraska

Still time to register!

Beginning 5-7:00 pm on Friday evening and continuing until approximately noon on Sunday, the fun never ends. Friday evening is the traditional potluck supper and group challenge quilt project. Saturday's workshop will be on Afro-American inspired quilts, including a bit of pre-Civil War history and some role playing.

Additional Saturday activities will include events for the physically fit and not-so-fit, plus evening games of Quilt Bingo. Sunday morning we will do a bit of cutting, ironing, and decorating of a purchased shirt with a Memory Block of this Fifth Annual Retreat. There will be time for Show and Tell and doing your own thing.

This Retreat is limited to a total of 70 members from the combined Omaha and Lincoln Guilds. Registration fee for the weekend (2 nights, all meals and activities) is $40.00. Please mail registration fee and large stamped, self-addressed envelope by September 15, 1990 to: Joan Biasucci, Box 113, Cedar Creek, NE 68016. No refunds will be given after September 15, 1990.

NQA '90 in Knoxville

A marvelous treat for both eye and mind!

What do the numbers 114 and 5 mean to you? Well, Tennessee quilters entered 114 quilts, and...you guessed it, Nebraskans entered 5. Among those five was our own Millie Fauquet whose "Mariner's Compass" won the Lynn Harris category. Next year, we want these numbers to be reversed with 114 + quilts entered by Nebraskans.

Here are a few guidelines to get you started with your quilt entry.

1. It can be a large or small bed-size; a large or small wall-hanging; pieced, appliqued or mixed technique; hand or machine quilted
...in addition, the same quilt can be entered in:
the scrap category (over 75 fabrics); crib; Lynn Harris (miniatures); and/or the '91 theme category "Heartland"
...If that's not quite right for you, how about doing a series?
...or, finish another's quilt top.

2. Your quilt must have been completed since 1986.
3. Your quilt can not have been exhibited at a previous NQA show.

Now that you are thinking about your entry, you can pick up a sheet of paper with more complete details at the September meeting.

We believe that Nebraska quilters are superb! And with our 114 + entries in next year's show, everyone will have reason to say "It was marvelous!"

1991 Raffle Quilt Report

...from Millie Fauquet

"Nebraska Harvest" is progressing well. To date, we have had 47 quilters give their time and stitches to the quilt. The ends and borders still need to be quilted. The first raffle tickets were sold at the Candy Factory during The Festival of the Plains...180 tickets in all! Thanks to those who sold tickets, to those who quilted, and to Pat Cole and Rosey Westerhold who moved the quilt from place to place. At this time the quilt is at Virginia Welty's, 3945 Orchard. Phone: 464-7642.

Busy Bee Quilters present Best of Show

If you should happen to be in Monroe, Washington on September 21-23, be sure to take in the "Best of Show" quilt show at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds.

This quilt show features quilts in all sizes, colors and techniques created by the Busy Bee Quilters. There will also be Challenge quilts, quilted gifts, doll quilts and a merchant mall.

The featured artist is Marilyn Doheny from Cutting Edge Designs.

Admission is $2.00. For more information send a SASE to: Mary Pierce, 25120-145th Place SE, Monroe, WA 98272.

(While you are there, say "Hello" to LQG member Diane Coombs in Everett, WA)

Quilter's tip

A quilter who took a quilting class at Ohio University discovered that if you add a little extra batting to the edge of your quilt, when it is enclosed in the binding, it will give the binding a rounded look. It may also keep the edge from wearing out as quickly.

Help!

As we begin this new Guild year, we have the largest membership yet in the history of LQG — nearly 300 paid members as of August, 1990! With a membership that large, it is difficult at best to get to know one another.

Therefore, I would like to start a feature column in Plain Print that would help LQG members learn more about other members... and I need your help!

I'm asking you to give of yourself, ...to share your thoughts, ...your reasons, ...your funny details, ...your logical insight, ...your mother's story, ...your grandmother's story, or maybe ...your "my dog ate my quilt" story and write it down!

I have two titles in mind for this column, either "How my quilt got its name", or "If my quilt could talk..."

I would like to start this column in the next issue (deadline September 20,). Please include photos, and/or sketches, whatever is necessary, and send it all to the editor, P.J. Peters, 6325 Tanglewood Lane, Lincoln, NE 68516. I'll see that everything is returned to you un-damaged...and, thank you in advance for sharing with us.

...thanks P.J. Peters

We know you're anxious... but don't come so early!

As you may recall from our last few meetings, if you wanted a seat up front, you had to get to the meeting earlier and earlier!

Now, we learn, that the doors to our meeting place...Union College 7th Day Adventist Church... just can't be opened much before 7:00, so, just stay home a little longer, O.K.? ..or Julia's going to yell!

Lincoln Quilters Guild meets the second Monday of each month September through May at Union College 7th Day Adventist Church, 49th and Prescott, Lincoln — at 7:00 p.m. If you would like to join Lincoln Quilters Guild and receive your copy of Plain Print, send your name, address, phone number and $10.00 yearly membership fee to P.O. Box 6861, Lincoln, NE 68506 — Attn. Sandy Anderson.
