Notes from our past...

The following paragraph was taken from one of the first newsletters of the Lincoln Quilters Guild dated August 31, 1973.

You will be proud to hear that our Guild is the largest chapter belonging to the National Quilters Association. We have 40 members.

I wish to thank Lou Lessman and Louise Howey for sharing this little bit of LQG history with us. Louise, as you may know, was our first president — serving in 1973-74. She has kept many of the newsletters from those early days. I hope to make them available to future editors of Plain Print so that they may share them with you. They are fascinating reading.

Today, LQG boasts a membership of 355!

Quilting done for you...

Jayne Wolfe has given notice to Plain Print that she does quilting for other people. ...a piece of information I considered keeping to myself! PJP

She can be reached at 483-6307.

Worth a try...

The following paragraph was taken from the March 1980 issue of Plain Print

We have tried PLAIN PRINT for a year. There have been more negative comments than approvals. Therefore, this is probably the last issue. It was worth a try.

...obviously, something changed their minds.

NQA Update!

...from Jean Davie

"Heartland" — NQA's Annual Show is virtually upon us. Even as I write, there are only 96 days until our wonderful dreams will have completely developed and materialized!

For now, these golden rings of opportunity circle among us. No one should miss the opportunity to grab one...even several.

Although we've had many, many requests for packets of information, one which I remember well was written on the back of a grocery shopping list. Not to be out done, I present below the show committee's shopping list of needs. These are in no particular order of importance, for each is absolutely vital! If you have any of these items that you can loan us for the show, please know that it is for the duration. You will not receive it back until the show is over on June 23rd.

Shopping list A (materials)

- four sturdy step stools — (will show example at the April meeting)
- dowels — (please bring to the April meeting and put in Jean Davie's car which will be parked by the front door — these will become the property of LQG)
- rolling kitchen carts for moving quilts as they are hung
- one black vest — (women's size 20-24)
- one fake handlebar moustache
- one bib apron
- one pink square dance style dress, size 10-12
- sewing and/or craft items for volunteer gifts (not returnable)
- projection screens
- cordless remote slide projector
- free-standing, dry-eraser board
- free-standing chalk board
- two sturdy wooden 5' ladders

Shopping list B (volunteer)

- help with judging and photography — June 15, 16, 17
- six models for style show —size 8-10
- someone to make simple, but quiltly covers for two information books at registration tables
- person to help Doni Boyd enter last minute quilt entries into her computer — April 17 - 22
- volunteers to pick up teachers at the airport — June 18, 19
- eight to twelve people to help Pat Andersen set up window displays on Saturday, June 15 — about two to three hours
- some more volunteers to sell advertising in the catalog!

Final notes

Shirley Trauger of Exter, who is presenting our vintage clothing style show at the banquet, will visit LQG at the April meeting for a wee sneak preview.

The Mayor of Lincoln will attend the May 13, LQG meeting to officially proclaim the city of Lincoln to be "Quilt City" during the month of June, 1991.

Samples of the mugs which will be given as favors to everyone registering for the NQA banquet Friday, June 21, will be shown at the April meeting. If you would like to special order additional mugs to add to your collection or as gifts for someone who cannot attend the banquet...we will be taking orders at $3.00 ea.

More later...

...from our president elect, Roxanne O'Hare

I am currently looking for volunteers to serve as committee chairs for the '91-'92 LQG year.

If you look on page four of your '90-'91 membership book, you will see just how many chair positions it takes for our guild to run smoothly. Please take a few minutes to see if one of these positions might be something which you feel you could do.

I would appreciate hearing from you. Help me make '91-'92 another great year for LQG!

You might consider the following:

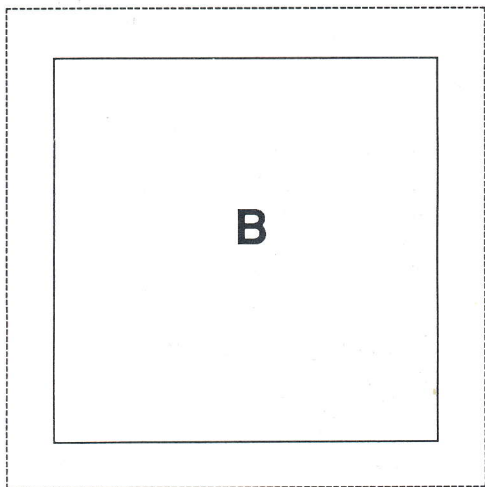

- planning the bus trip
 - coordinating the fall retreat,
 - choosing the friendship blocks
 - keeping historical records,
 - making sure our members feel welcome,
 - checking out books from the LQG's library to other members
 - keeping our membership roles
 - editing the newsletter
 - making nominations for future officers,
 - taking charge of the workshops
- ...at LQG, there's something for everyone!
