Happy Holidays

FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

We are thankful for and extend a heartfelt welcome to all of our members. It is not always easy to get our work done, the family fed and brave the elements to get to a meeting. A special welcome to all of our out of town members. Mandy have had to take off work early, have worked through lunch hours and juggled hours just to get to our meetings. We appreciate all of our members for their attendance at meetings and their support through their work on committees and projects.

Statistics show that in a typical organization, 20% of the membership do 95% of the work. We are not typical because we have a much higher percentage who have been involved in guild projects so far this guild year. By rough calculations, 38% of our members have contributed, but this number will grow as more members become involved in projects in 1994. We are very grateful to all our volunteers. They all are very busy with work, family and many other commitments. For all their work we are very grateful and offer our sincere thanks and support

The Executive Board

Peace, Joy and Best Wishes

The holidays are in full swing and if your home is like mine there is a hectic yet joyful excitement. It is amazing to me how our "taken for granted" senses can trigger so many memories. The aromas and tastes of special foods, the sight and texture of well worn and much cherished decorations can carry we down many memory paths. One dessert that is traditional in my family is Ostakaka, yes that is the real name for this Swedish dessert. I have an old, old recipe that starts out by explaining how to select the right cow to milk to get the sweetest milk. Today I started out with store bought cottage cheese and skip one days preparations but it still tastes the same and when I take it to my 98 year old grandmother she "Knows it is Christmas."

I believe that there may be an overlooked reason that there are so many dessert and candy recipes during the holiday season when stress levels are at their highest. Stressed spelled backwards is desserts. So when you are feeling a lot of stress, sit down, put up your feet and have a cookie or brownie. How ever you and your family celebrate the Holidays, I wish you Peace, Joy and Best Wishes for a Prosperous and Happy New Year.

Sandy Anderson, President

"I don't mind her quilting,
but this is ridiculous!!!"

NOVEMBER'S FALL/CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE

Boutique chairperson Jean Ang did a good job of rounding up talented participants for LQG's marvelous display of wares. The packed isles were a testament to the way we quilters look forward to this annual event. Each year I see a definite improvement over the years before in the very interest of the buyers and especially in the talents of the sellers. Excellent hand crafting and attention to detail was once again pronounced as the doors opened on the 1993 Boutique. Thanks Jean and committee for a job well done?

ORNAMENT'S EXCHANGED

Did you remember to personally thank the person from whom you received your ornament in the November exchange? I sent DEB AHL a note for her contribution which I was fortunate enough to receive and SHELLY BURGE came up to me at the boutique and personally thanked me for the miniature folded star cube I contributed. A penned note, a phone call, a personal message at the cookie exchange? All ways to cement your relationships with other members.

LQG 1994 QUILT SHOW

March is fast approaching - get busy!

My TO DO LIST for the LQG 1994 QUILT SHOW

- QUILT my display quilt
- GET auction items done
- SELL raffle tickets

You may get more tickets from Linda Mager (464-0842) and also turn in stubs.

USA TODAY HIGHLIGHTS QUILTS & QUILTERS

Did you happen to see the October 11th issue of USA TODAY? There was a most interesting article by Gene Sloan expounding the benefits of quilting for relaxation and/or profit. Well known Ohio quilt artist Nancy Crow, was highlighted along with a timely article by Penny McMorris, quilt historian and author of THE CRAZY QUILT.

In her article entitled COVER ALL GROUND WHEN BUYING Penny indicates that interest isn't the only thing that has taken off recently . . . so have the prices! She suggests doing your homework first. Looking at the best and suggested reading would be THE AMERICAN QUILT by Roderick Kiracofe. Look for beauty and originality she insists and remember that some of the most prized quilts are simple. Amish quilts often have only three or four bold solid colors. Two years ago, Sotheby's sold a Civil War-era quilt to a private collector for $260,000!

Penny points out that condition is important. Old does not have to mean worn. Check the bindings before you buy, that wears first and signals the over all health of the fabric within. Warning us not to obsess on perfection, she states that a 50 year old quilt is bound to have some age showing. The finer the stitching the more you can expect to pay, but beware of old quilts made with silk, especially CRAZY QUILTS. In the old days fabric companies sprinkled silk with lead to make it weight more (fabric used to be sold by the pound!) and the lead is causing these fabrics to disintegrate.

Once we were able to pick these beauties up at garage sales and flea markets and farm sales, but that is getting harder and harder to do, although the rare stories of great (and cheap!) finds are grist for our quilter mills and we relish the stories carried by word of mouth to pour into our interested ears!

A Quilter's Christmas Recipe

One large portion of family members
 Dash of company
 Abundance of good cheer
 Stir all of the above slowly while adding Christmas music and aromas from holiday cooking.
 Hang all Christmas wall hangings, quilted stockings and display all red and green quilts.
 Add one tall green tree with tons of lights & ornaments.
 Add popcorn, strings ONLY, if your household pets will not scale the tree in an effort to devour strings!
 Serve late in December & the memories should last all year!

Happy Holidays from the Co-Editors of the PLAIN PRINT.

December Cookie Exchange

There is no official business meeting for December to give the LQG members time to enjoy the holidays in their own way. However, a long standing tradition will be honored as the Andersen women, Pat and Mickey, once again open their home for the annual Christmas Cookie Exchange on the evening of December 13th. The December SKIMMER/SWIMMER AWARD will be presented that evening, so read your PLAIN PRINT in anticipation of a call. We'll wipe the cookie dough off our dialing finger just long enough to create a winner! Be aware!

MY QUILT

My neighbor is washing her windows
And scrubbing and mopping her floors.
But, my house is all topsy-turvy,
And dust is behind all the doors.
My neighbor, she keeps her house spotless
And she goes all day long at a trot.
But, no one would know in a fortnight
If she swept today or not
The task I'm at is enticing . . .
My neighbor is worn to a rag.
I am making a quilt out of pieces
I have saved in a pretty chintz bag.
And the quilt, I know my descendants
Will exhibit with prideful heart . . .
"So lovely - my grandmother made it,
An example of patience and art."
But will her grandchildren remember
Her struggles with dirt and decay?
They will not - they will wish she had made them
A quilt like I'm making today.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

The November issue of PLAIN PRINT was great! I appreciated the additional names enclosed! Thanks!

I realize that using a facilitator to make the announcements for the meetings is intended to be a "time saver," but being a comparatively new member, I really looked forward to seeing the FACES with the ANNOUNCEMENTS so I could learn who was who in LQG. By the time I turned around in my seat and locate the person referred to in an announcement, that person has seated herself again, and I am wondering who she was, and then have to turn my concentration again to the next messages, etc. Perhaps limit the length of news or announcements? I sure would like to see faces with names again!

One suggestion for those of us with low name recognition for other quilters (Sara Dillow, etc.) How about some more background information.

Editors: Thank you for your suggestion, we always try to include a name and telephone number of the person (s) in charge of specific activities. Please feel free to call responsible members with any questions or information you need. It would be a good way to get to know other members and further our education about quilts, quilters and quilting.

Our group appreciates the hard work the editors do for each newsletter and we feel sorry that they take "heat" at meetings for lost or late mailings. I would strongly suggest these few who do not receive their newsletters contact their post office with their complaints. Sometimes bulk mail gets to sit while 1st class, etc., gets priority treatment.

I really enjoyed KARI RONNING's presentation and slide show at the November meeting. Her expertise in our Nebraska Author, WILLA CATHER and her ongoing knowledge of quilts, blocks and names made for a very enjoyable program. The Boutique was a bonus attraction and appreciated, but KARI's knowledge is a treasure to be proud of in a member of LQG. We are fortunate to have her in our membership.

Carole Montgomery

Editors: Thank you for your support! It's hard to hold your copy for incoming news that has been promised and delayed, it's hard facing members who are upset over not receiving their newsletters on time, and it's defeating when your printer reports his machinery is "down" and we have all the membership to please . . . but we keep trying! Also, we are making a list of names to suggest to the nominations board as possible editors in the future!

NEW LIBRARY BOOKS

MORE GIFTS FROM "That Patchwork Place"

Lincoln Quilters Guild is proud to add to our inventory these titles just received:

Piecemakers - Country Store, Cost Mesa, California
Quilts for Kids by Carolann Palmer
Quilts for Baby by Ursula Reikes
Animas Quilts by Jackie Robinson
Little Quilts All through the House, by Berg, Johnson and Van Holt

We will all enjoy these for a long time to come.

LQG Library has two copies of the video about the Nebraska Quilt Project. This is a 21 minute program about how our members searched the state to document quilts. You may check this video out from our Resource Room. If you would like to order your own copy of this video, contact Martha Dennis, librarian for an order form.

There are more than 10 different videos in our LQG Library!! How many have you checked out? Which did you enjoy most? Martha has just watched Hearts and Hands, from the ETV series "The American Experience." This is a history program about US women and quilts 1800 to 1920. This video is 1 hour long.

In addition to the donated books already listed I have purchased 11 books this month. These were recommended by various sources. The remainder of the library budget is being used to order 6 different state quilt histories. These will all be on hand for your enjoyment in January, 1994.

If you have ideas on quilt related books that you would like us to own . . . why not buy the book and donate it to our library! Or write down your suggestions for the next budget year.

NEW BOOKS

A Treasury of Quilting Designs by Emery
Mastering Machine Applique by Hargrave
Rotary Riot by Hopkins and Martin
Architectural Detail for Quilts by Wagner
Applique 12 Easy Ways by Sienkiewicz
Frogs & Flowers by Remme
Quilting with Style by Marston and Cunningham
Stenciled Quilts for Christmas by Sturmer
Double Wedding Ring by Nownes
Patchwork Quilts for Children by Rolfe

Skimmer or Swimmer?

SMALL QUILT GROUP NEWS

November's winner is JOYCE DONLAN who, when called, immediately knew the answer to November's question; WHO IS IN CHARGE OF THE FALL/CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE? "I know that," Joyce shouted, "I just talked to Jean Ang!" DEB AHL's number was the first to be dialed and she boasted that I could "Ask her any question!" She had read her PLAIN PRINT and she was ready . . . however, after hearing the question she wailed that she didn't know names! KATHERINE BANGSUND, a paid member, said she had not received her copy so far and LOUISE BAUGHER was not at home to accept her chance at the prize. JANET JOHNSON said she was a new member and didn't know names yet, but she DID know what the recipe was! Once again, all those contacted were aware of the contest and were very anxious to participate!

Read your PLAIN PRINT . . . we know your neighborhood!

A swimmer "dives in" to the content of the newsletter and becomes informed. A skimmer looks at headlines and skips across the pages with wild abandon.

Looking for swimmers out of all of you in the '93-'94 season. At random a call will be placed to an LQG paid member, a short (but sweet) question will be asked by one of the co-editors and NO FAIR PEEKING at your issue for the answer! You'll have ONE MINUTE from the start of the call to be prepared, and you could be the winner of a BROWN BAG OF GOODIES prepared especially by the co-editors of THE PLAIN PRINT! We will continue to make random calls until we have a winner!

BE AWARE!!!!!!

SOLUTION TO JUST FOR FUN!!!

Hidden Word: Heirlooms

RAGOMANIACS

To call the ladies in this small quilt guild "a sewing group" is a misnomer according to member Millie Fauquet. They do not meet to sew she informs us . . . they MEET TO EAT! DORIS VON SEGGERN, HEDDY KOHL and SONJA SCHNEIDER round out the nucleus of this friendly group, but any quilter they meet along the way is always welcome to join in the fun!

Originally tagged THE LUNCH BUNCH, Heddy's husband, Jerry, re-named them THE RAGOMANIACS, which seemed more appropriate given their chosen hobbies, and besides that it cloaked their secret identities . . . FOOD FANATICS!

Their outings consist of shopping for fabric, lunch, visiting antique shops, lunch and mini-trips for no reason at all, except lunch! There is no set date or time for these ladies to meet. One good idea simply "feeds off" another!

Their most recent fling was a two-day fabric marbling marathon in Millie's basement kitchen. Starting out as a one day event, it grew like Topsy and when they were done 11 yards of fabric was processed!

Who knows where their next adventure will lead! RAGOMANIA REIGNS!

SCRAP HAPPENS!

The SCRAP HAPPENS small quilt group meets year round on the first Monday of each month. This is a "closed membership" group and the one rule they all follow is that none of the members can stay home on the first Monday evening of the month!

DONI BOYD, CAROL CURTIS, DONNA JENSEN, E.D. KUHLMAN, MARTHA LANE, CATHY MEYERS and JAYNEE WOLFE are the talented members of this group who met recently in Ashland for their own personal retreat. Making projects from the book GATHERINGS, they plan to repeat these retreats as often as they can get away with it! Usually the group meets and works on their own projects, but sometimes do a unified project like their SCRAP HAPPEN t-shirts and their "squirrel pillows."

NOTE: If you would like your small group to be featured in PLAIN PRINT, send your article to Carole Montgomery, 600 Dale Drive. If you need help assembling the facts, I can help. Give a call to 488-8415!

Minutes of the Nov. 8, 1993 LQG Meeting held at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, 7:30 pm

President Sandra Anderson called the meeting to order and welcomed all. The order of the evening was program, business meeting, show and tell with boutique before and after the meeting.

Laura Rocke introduced the speaker, Kari Ronning, assistant editor of the Willa Cather Scholarly Edition. Kari presented her paper given at AQSG, "Plain and Fancy Quilting in Webster County, 1890-1920." Slides accompanied the presentation.

The minutes of the previous meeting stand as printed. Carroll Dischner, treasurer, reported receipts of $1,099.82, disbursements of $2,664.32 and a balance of $1,164.80 in checking with a money market balance of $17,137.46.

There was no continuing or new business.

Pat Anderson, facilitator, made the following announcements:

Lost and found items from retreat were available for owners to claim.

An NQA pin was found at the evening's meeting.

The registration form in last month's PLAIN PRINT for the March show may be duplicated. Forms should be sent to Carol Curtis.

Geraniums for the March show may be ordered through Connie Strobe through November.

The 19 guests present were welcomed by the guild.

Beatrice raffle tickets were available.

On Sat., Nov. 20, there will be a 9:30 am Back to Basic class in applique at the Resource Room. There is a $5.00 fee.

Tile cabinets and storage units are needed for the Resource Room. Call Sue Volkmer if you can help out with these needs.

Geranium t-shirts and sweatshirts can be ordered through Joan Biasucci. Information in PLAIN PRINT.

Seventy-one crib quilts for Operation Christmas were made by Cedar Creek Quilters and the Monday Lunch Bunch.

Numbers that have assigned for the Fall Boutique will remain the same for the quilt show boutique. To keep those numbers reregister with Millie Fauquet.

The Fabric Manor in Fairbury has a quilt show scheduled from 1:00-5:00 on Nov. 20 & 21. It will include a private collection of quilts and quilt tops by Alice McKee and a trunk show of quilts from Grandma's Attic by Elinor Burns. A silent auction will be held both days.

Jean Davie has Armstrong sheer and upholstery fabrics that will be disposed of shortly. Copies of the care and storage of quilts are available for use as hand-outs when doing a quilt program. See Jean.

The annual evening workshop cookie exchange will be held Monday, Dec. 13, at the home of Pat and Mickey Andersen. Bring 2-1/2 doz. cookies on a marked tray.

Carole Montgomery, co-editor of PLAIN PRINT, announced that there would be a Dec. issue of the PLAIN PRINT. She asked for information on the small groups. Five were called on the Skimmer/Swimmer Brown Bag Award with Joyce Donlan winning. The Dec. award will be announced at the cookie exchange.

Charlotte Boe, co-editor of PLAIN PRINT, explained that PLAIN PRINT is sent Bulk Rate and that can cause delay in the delivery. They are aware of the problem and will work to remedy it.

There were 29 Big Red Dipper friendship blocks which were won by Joan Buhmann. The Dec. block drawing will be held at the cookie exchange. Those not attending can send their block to Becky Haynes by Dec. 8.

The Meet-A-Member quilters were Brenda Carlson, chair of the Holiday Charity Food Drive, and Joan Biasucci, chair of the Ornament Exchange. Sandy thanked those who had brought food.

Following Show-and-Tell the Ornament Exchange was held.

Sandy adjourned the meeting by wishing everyone a safe and happy holiday.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucile Lenz, Secretary

RETREAT INFORMATION WANTED

Calling all October Retreaters. The Corny Bunch did not record your Indian names (whether you made a name tag or not) and would like to have records of this (just for fun). Please call or write Charlotte Boe, 5527 South 31, #11, Lincoln, NE 68516, 423-4241. Thank you.

Sandy Anderson's Massachusetts Pen-Pal Sara is building a new home. Upon enlisting a real estate agent to sell her old one, the agent searched for a description with which to identify her decor. After the first trip to Sara's home and realizing she was an avid quilter, the agent immediately coined the phrase; EARLY FABRIC EXPLOSION!

ADVICE FOR THE QUILT WORN by Miss Haps

Has your husband ever mistaken your rotary tool as a pizza cutter? Has your son ever set out to prove your self-healing cutting mat . . . wasn't? Has your daughter, un-beknown to you, ever "borrowed" several inches of your newest floral print for a school project and you come up that much short on your king size commissioned quilt that is due to be shipped in time for Christmas to a woman in New York who sent your advance check months ago? Of course that fabric is NO LONGER AVAILABLE, and you lower yourself to groveling level in order to finish the task by spreading work-of-mouth your plight and flashing a small tip of the needed material to all your sewing friends.

If you have been in a similar situation, send your "horror stories" to Carole Montgomery for the Miss Haps COLUMN! Need help tying your story together? Call me at 488-8415!
