Paper Foundation Workshop

Paper-foundation piecing is a skill you may learn from Vicky Skuodos on Saturday, June 8, in the Resource Room. No pre-registration is necessary. You may drop in for one of three one-hour sessions: 10 to 11 A.M., 11 to Noon, or Noon to 1 P.M. You may sign in at the workshop and pay with a check for $5 made out to Lincoln Quilters Guild. Bring your sewing machine (or share one with a friend), fabric, basic sewing supplies, and an extension cord. Questions call Marilyn Lockard, 489-4944.

Cook Book Fund-Raiser

Recipe collection continues at the May meeting. You are requested to reserve and prepay for your copies of the cook book at the time of the recipe collection. The discounted prepayed amount is $15.00 (includes sales tax). Questions call Millie Fauquet, 464-4176

Contemporary Quilts from the James Collection

Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery, UNL
June 23 to September 1, 1996

Drawn from the exceptional private collection of Ardis and Robert James, the show features 28 contemporary studio art quilts by such noted artists as Michael James, Nancy Crow, Therese May, and Jan Myers-Newbury. The James who now make New York their home are Nebraska natives - Ardis from Lincoln, and Robert from Ord.

The Nebraska State Quilt Guild is hosting a reception in conjunction with the opening on Sunday, June 23 from 3:30 to 5:00 PM. Plan now to attend this gala event. A lecture by Jonathan Holstein will precede the reception.

Ars Textrina

14th Annual Conference on Textiles at UNL, June 22-25, 1996. Highlights of the conference include Jonathan Holstein as a featured speaker, opening of "Contemporary Quilts from the James Collection" and many excellent research papers. The registration fee will be $150. To request more information about conference registration, contact the UNL Division of Continuing Education, 271 NCGE UNL, Lincoln, NE

"Quiltin' at the Creek" Exhibit

This Sixth Annual Exhibit will be held during the months of June and July, 1996, at Anna's Restaurant, Cedar Creek, Nebraska. There were so many participants we have decided to hold the exhibit in two parts, which will allow us the opportunity to display all quilts to their best advantage. Also on display during the two-month exhibit will be "Anna's Country Garden," an opportunity quilt created to benefit the Nebraska State Quilt Guild Preservation Project. Tickets will be available for purchase at the restaurant during the exhibit. The drawing for this quilt will be held at Anna's at the close of business on Thursday, July 31, 1996. Questions call Joan Biasucci 402-234-2148.

"A Feast for the Eyes"

Our 1996 Challenge was called "a la carte" because you got to pick and choose. You started with a square, on point, squared out, and bordered as many times and ways as you wished . . . or had time for. Now we're eager to see the many, varied, exciting results.

Bring your challenge pieces, large or small, finished or not . . . we'll "feast" our eyes! There will be "judges' choice" and "viewer's choice" awards - but we all know the "winners" are all those who "took the challenge," who tried something new, who learned, grew, and had some fun stitching and planning. Questions call Jan Stehlik - 402-946-4091.

1996-97 Dues

To speed up paying your dues, please fill out this form and put it into an envelope. A box will be available at the meetings in which to place your envelope, or you may send your dues to Sherry Taylor, 202 Lakewood Dr., Lincoln, NE 68510. Your membership card will be in your membership book that will be available at the September meeting. We hope this will cut down on the confusion and long lines at the meetings. Membership deadline is July 1. After this date guarantee of newsletters and other membership benefits becomes hard to predict. Please make it easier on all your committees that try to keep track of you and stay organized.
