The Lux Quilt Collection & the University Place Art Center with Linda Lux Striman and Gayle Andres

Gayle Andres, director of the University Place Art Center, and Linda Lux Striman, great-niece of Gladys Lux, will present a program featuring the quilt collection of Gladys Lux and the University Place Art Center. Gladys is well known for her nationally famous doll collection and her talents as an artist and teacher, but she also had an eye for quilts. These quilts are housed and sometimes displayed at the UPAC. Gladys is the aunt of John Lux for whom Lux Middle School was named.

Lincoln Quilters Guild — quilting since 1973

Meeting the second Monday of each month, September through May, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, 4015 S. 49th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska Gathering at 6:30 p.m. Program at 7:00 p.m.

President's Column

Dear Friends,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you all. I want to express my gratitude for your support, your enthusiasm, and your suggestions. Your smiling, positive faces mean more to me than you can imagine. I want to publicly thank those individuals whose patience and hard work help to make the Lincoln Quilters Guild a successful and vibrant group.

As your president, I hope that throughout the past year I have listened to your concerns and been open to your ideas. I have tried to keep the best interests of the Guild in mind when making any decisions. I have also tried to look to the future of our organization. It has been a learning experience, sometimes difficult, most often enjoyable. To be "mother" to all of you for this time has also been rewarding. Thank you all for the chance that you gave me to grow, work hard, learn tons, and generally have a great time.

— Lora

Quilt Show at the Governor's Mansion

Virginia A. Spiegel, Ph.D., will be showing her mixed media art quilts at the Governor's Mansion from May 9 to June 9, 2000. The quilts can be viewed at the Mansion, 1425 "H" Street, in Lincoln from 1:00 to 4:00 on Thursdays, or during public functions. There is no admission charge.

Spiegel is a full-time studio art quilter based in Nebraska City, NE. She was one of eleven Nebraska artists selected by the Nebraska Arts Council for participation in the Governor's Mansion Art Program based on submitted slides and resumes. Spiegel has had work juried into regional, national, and international exhibits. She will be the featured speaker at one of our guild programs next year.

Minutes

LQG General Meeting

April 10, 2000

7:00 p.m. Seventh Day Adventist Church

Lora Roche, President, welcomed Guild members.

Jo Anne Bair introduced speaker Chris Wieggers from Beatrice, NE. Chris will be teaching a Machine Trapunto class on April 16, 2000.

Lora called the meeting to order. The minutes of the last meeting were approved as written. Pat Andersen gave the Treasurer's report. Pat Hackley moved to accept the report, and it was seconded by Jo Baxter.

Diane Deahl gave announcements. The Guild had eleven visitors. Diane thanked the refreshment committee. Nancy Pierce will be taking membership dues before and after the meetings in April and May. Mr. & Mrs. McClane sent a thank you for the Cuddle Quilt that their granddaughter received while she was in the hospital.

Vice-President/Programs, Jo Anne Bair, reported that the Quilters Day Tea had a wonderful program and delicious carrot cake. The program for May will feature the collection of the Lux quilts.

Quilt Show 2000: Kim Bock, Chair, reminded guild members to turn in items for the auction. To date we have sold $2300 for the Raffle Quilt. Hematology office reported that they use about 50 blankets a day and will appreciate lap or twin size quilts. Be sure to turn in registration forms for quilts you want in the show. Photos of your quilts will be taken at our next Guild meeting in May. Kathie Baumbach reported that there will be a Cancer Research table at the Quilt Show. There will be risk forms to fill out to help with early detection. Donations will be welcomed. The Executive Board approved that 10% of the Quilt Show auction money will go to "Every Women Matters" and 90% will go to programming. Connie Strobe asked Guild members to help with security during the Quilt Show.

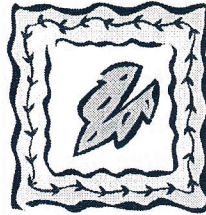

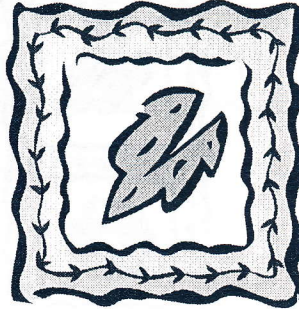

Diana Dreith, Bus Trip Chair, announced that 6 spaces are still available, and she will take reservations until April 22nd.

Lora thanked her Executive Board and Chairs for their help in this year's Guild.

Lois Wilson, Nomination Chair, presented the new slate of officers for the 2000-2001 Quilt Guild:

Diane Deahl.....President

- Janiece Goin.....President Elect
- Marilyn Rembolt.....Vice President/Programs
- Gloria Smith.....Vice President/Programs Elect
- Kathie Baumbach.....Secretary
- Sheila Green.....Treasurer
- Lana Jo Reffert.....Treasurer Elect

The new slate of officers was approved by the Guild Members.

Pat Andersen, Treasurer, presented the new budget for 2000-2001. The Guild will vote at the next meeting in May.

Sue Volkmer, Cuddle Quilt Chair, has two bed size quilt tops that need to be quilted. These quilts will be given to the Cedars Home for Children at their new facility. Sue and Wave Hanson would like to donate fifty Cuddle Quilts or Wall Hangings to the home. Members were asked to help with this project.

Gloria Smith received 22 Friendship Blocks. Joyce Donlan won 12 blocks, and Kathy Moore won 10 blocks.

Kate Laucomer, Raffle Quilt Chair, drew names for the following winners:

- Deb Peck.....quilt made by Terri Wenz
- Anita Dover.....quilt made by Gloria Smith
- Roxann O'Hare.....quilt made by LaDonna Pankoke

Lora adjourned the meeting for Show & Tell.

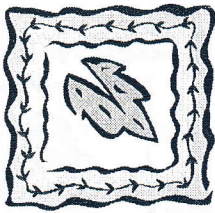

— Beverly Vogel, Secretary

Mini Raffle

Congratulations LQG! We raised $169.75 at the April meeting. Congrats to the quilt winners! And a special thank you to Teri Wenz, Gloria Smith, and LaDonna Pankoke for the wonderful mini quilts you donated!

Summer Plain Print Deadline

The summer issue of the Plain Print will be coming out the first part of July, so we will need to have everything in by Monday, June 19. Please send articles to Leah Hayes, 1810 S. 23rd Street, 68502; e-mail: LeahKSH@aol.com; phone: 477-5709. Thank you!!

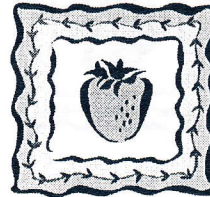

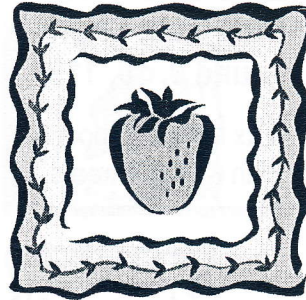

Resource Room

As of May 1, the Resource Room, located at 60th & South Streets, will no longer be open on Tuesday mornings. It will reopen again in September. If you need access to the room, please call Barb Schlegelmilch at 483-2751 or Diane Deahl at 420-9080.

National Quilting Day Update

Thank you to all who came and helped make our celebration of National Quilting Day a success. I especially want to thank the committee, Marilyn Rembolt, Sheila Green, Bev Vogel, Brenda Carlson, Carolyn Meter, Chris Wieggers, and Elaine Ford. Lora Rocke gave us a wonderful peek into the sewing rooms of some of Nebraska's favorite quilters. A very special thank you goes to Mickey Anderson for the door prizes and to Marilyn Rembolt for the batting. Everyone left with a prize.

School Book Program

As part of our Outreach Program, the board has proposed the following: each year the Lincoln Quilters Guild will donate a book related to quilts, quilting, or quilt history to the Lincoln Public Schools libraries. The donations will alternate between books to middle schools and high schools and books to elementary schools.

Beginning this year, all Lincoln Middle Schools and High Schools will receive a gift of a quilt-related book for each library. Next year each elementary school will receive an appropriate grade level book related to quilts or quilting. The funding of this program will be from mini raffles, donations, and a budgeted amount.

Revving Up for the Quilt Show!

Guild Members, are your registration forms for the quilt show and challenge filled out? Both forms are included in this month's Plain Print. Registration forms will be accepted at the May meeting or by mail. Addresses can be found on each of the registration forms. Joyce Page and a Challenge Committee Member will be at the May meeting to take pictures of your quilts, if you still need them for your registration forms.

Top monthly seller of raffle tickets will receive a gift at the May meeting. Get your tickets sold, NOW! They make great Mother's Day and birthday gifts! We will also need to collect ALL unsold raffle tickets at the May meeting, so that they are available for sale at the Quilt Show. We have doubled our sales of raffle tickets sold compared to this date in 1998. Keep up the good work. If you are in need of more tickets to sell, please contact me (Kim Bock, 421-1729) or meet with me at the May meeting.

Kate Laucomer received several auction quilts at the April meeting. They looked wonderful! It is not too late to still get an item donated for the quilt show auction. 10% of auction proceeds (up to $500) will be donated to "Every Woman Matters", Nebraska's Early Detection of Breast and Cervical Cancer Program. It was established by Federal Legislation in 1990 and is administered by Nebraska Health and Human Services. The purpose of the program is to improve access to Breast and Cervical Cancer screening services among women who do not have health insurance or are inadequately insured.

Clipboards will be passed around during the May meeting for hanging, take-down, white gloves, and greeters. Hanging of the quilts will be done on Wednesday, June 7th & 8th. By helping to hang quilts, you get an up-close look at the quilts! If you can't spend the entire day, come for what time you have available. Both white gloving (gloves provided) and greeting are done during show hours. Two hour shifts are available, so be sure to sign up. These are opportunities for you to help with the quilt show and enjoy it at the same time.

See you in May! — Kim Bock

Quilt Show Auction

It's time to be turning in your auction items!! The auction is quickly approaching (oh my!), and we need your auction items turned in WITH an auction label and a sleeve on the back. You may still pick up labels at the May meeting.

If your auction item will not be finished by the May meeting, please contact Kate (423-4611) so we can make arrangements to receive it before the quilt show . . . it makes life much easier in the Laucomer household, if the auction booklet can be worked on and pretty much finished before the show begins!

Attention All You Night Owls!!!

There are openings for security personnel at our quilt show. Requirements for this job (if you should choose to accept it) . . . quilt-sit an entire gym loaded with beautiful quilts on Thursday, Friday, or Saturday from the close of show hours till opening the next day. TOUGH DUTY!

And what could you possibly do to fill the hours while keeping our quilts safe? Do you have tops that need basting, but you haven't had the time or the large surface to get it done? Lux School just happens to have numerous tables (and a very large floor space for those of you who like to rough it)!

Would your small group like to pull an all-nighter? Haven't had time to read that terrific book you've had for months? Couldn't possibly make it all night??? Give me a call, and we can arrange for the number of hours you'd like. If you think you might be interested in this assignment, or would like further details, please call Connie Strobe at 423-7375. An Invitation to LQG Members

As a way to celebrate the fact that we have access to so many wonderful quilts in the James Collection, I am inviting any interested member/friend to join me in recreating a favorite quilt from that collection. My goal is to have some of these reproductions ready for hanging during the AQSG Seminar in October. They can either be tops or completed quilts, full size or miniaturized. If you are interested in participating, please contact me, Kathy Moore, at 488-5620. I have mine picked out, but if you want to participate and don't know which one you'd like to recreate, give me a call. I can help. I need to hear from you so we'll know how many quilts we need to plan for so please give me a call.

*For information on the 2000 American Quilt Study Group Seminar in Lincoln, October 13 to 15, and to find out about volunteer opportunities,
contact Kathy Moore, AQSG Chair, at 488-5620.*

Community Fundraiser

A year-long "Home Project" is focusing on the preservation of the many stories of "home" in our growing capital city. Lincoln artists and quilters are invited to participate in a joint fundraiser that will benefit Friendship Home and The Wagon Train Project. Quilt blocks depicting "home" will be displayed and on sale at F. M. Hall House, 1029 S. 11th Street, on May 14, 2000. Proceeds will go to Friendship Home and the Wagontrain Project. For more information and details call Lora Rocke 488-1670.

IQSC Hours

The International Quilt Study Center is open Monday, Tuesday, & Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. to noon in the Home Economics Building on East Campus. Drop by to see the quilts from the James Collection and learn more about how they house and care for the largest, publicly-held quilt collection in the world. Call Alta at 472-6549, if you have questions.

May Friendship Block 4-Patch

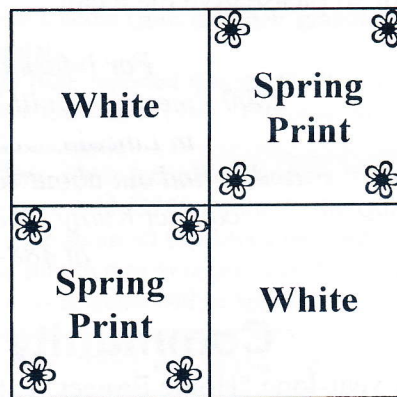

We are ending the year with a basic block. The settings of it can be numerous. Make as many blocks as you like, but you can only win one set. Please put your name on each block.

Please use all cotton fabric that has been pre-washed.

Fabrics needed: 2 3" squares, white tone-on-tone
 2 3" squares, spring floral print

Sew together as shown.

This will make a 5" finished block. You should have a 5 1/2" block with seam allowances.

"The Quilter's Nightmare"

*I had an awful dream last night,
I woke up uncomposed
I dreamt I went to buy some cloth but the fabric store was closed.*

*I peered through barren windows;
I could see no one in there, and those shelves that held good fabric and fine notions, they were bare.*

*And what about those ladies, that helped me, oh, so much with all my quilting projects....
....they just had that special touch.*

Alas, I saw a kind old man and as he walked towards me, I said, "I come to buy some cloth that this store is closed, I see."

He said: "That don't surprise me, why, those ladies can't compete with that great big, fancy, discount store that they built just up the street."

*I thought about the words he said
as he ambled on his way;
I guess if I'm to buy some cloth that's where I'll shop today.*

*I drove up to the parking lot and headed to the door;
that thing swung open and here I was inside this great, huge store.*

*I grabbed a cart and walked and walked past clothes and pots and pans;
I finally saw a Stock Boy, and I said,
"Please help me if you can."*

*I said, "I came to buy some cloth," and he gave me a funny stare, then mumbled barely legible,
"I think it's by hardware."*

Well, I pushed that cart past ten more aisles and sure enough, I see the bolts of fabric, every kind, and a clerk to wait on me

*I told this pretty lady
I had come to buy some cloth;
she said, "My dear, you're on your own,
I can only cut if off*

*"the bolt and mark the price, then you must pay up front,"
and she walked away and left me;
I was really up a stump.*

*The bolts were all a hodge-podge and they didn't seem to care;
there was no "Jenny Beyer" and I was wishin' I weren't there.*

*I thought about that nice quilt show and a lump came in my throat;
gosh, I wish that shop weren't closed and that's when I awoke!*

I awoke to one good lesson of how this dream could sure come true if those little shops could not depend on folks like me and you to shop there for our quilting needs, though they sometimes can't compete with those great big fancy discount stores, but you know, those small shops can't be beat!
