Lincoln Quilters Guild — quilting since 1973

Meeting the second Monday of each month, September through May, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, 4015 S. 49th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska
Gathering at 6:30pm. Program at 7:00pm

President's Column

By Diane Deahl

The Quilts Tell the Story

I spent the better part of a day unfolding and refolding the quilts in the Guild's collection. I photographed those that would fit on my design wall, made notes on size and distinctive traits, and recorded what was written on the quilts and their labels.

Some of the quilts brought back personal memories. The mauve/wine/blue/teal guild banner bears my imprint in design and construction. Pam Haas and I chose the fabrics, now dated by their grayed tones, on a trip to Lawrence, KS. I remember that the guild banner pieced with "vintage" calicos greeted me at the first guild meetings I attended at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Most importantly, names on the quilts brought to mind women who have guided the Guild throughout the years. Being president of the Lincoln Quilters Guild has not been the culminating role for most. It has been one more way in which they could serve the Guild and carry out their dedication to the art of quilting. Most of these women, as well as those who have chosen other leadership roles, are still active in the Guild today. The quilts tell their story.

As my year as president draws to a close, I'm thankful for new and renewed friendships, for lessons I've learned, for much accomplished, and for doors opened as we work for the Guild's future.

Thanks to each and every one of you. It's been an amazing year! And I'm sure that story will be in our quilts as well.

Discover Nebraska

"DISCOVER NEBRASKA: Honoring Nebraska Through Quilts," (developed by Jenny Raymond of Gothenburg for The State Quilters Guild) is a Quilting/Social Studies Unit geared to 4th graders studying Nebraska History. The finished project, which takes about 2 1/2 hours, is a Paper Quilt, 36" X 36," that hangs in each class. A trunk show of quilts is displayed, and the various blocks are discussed. Students color and piece the paper quilt and assemble the blocks for display. A book presentation to the school completes the workshop.

We have on loan from The State Quilters Guild via Jenny Raymond, "The Nebraska State Quilt," which is a focal point of the presentations. By fall we hope to have our own Nebraska State Quilt that can be kept in Lincoln for Lincoln-area use.

We have received donated quilts for the trunk show from Mary Ghormley, Anne Parrott, Ann Hauder, Lois Wilson, Gloria Smith, Millie Fauquet, Jean Davie, Jean Ang and Joan Schwalm.

Jean Ang & Shirley Anderson are co-chairs for The Lincoln Quilters Guild "DISCOVER NEBRASKA." Jean, Shirley and June Reta have been Lead Presenters in the schools. Brenda Carlson, Sheila Green, Lucile Lenz, Virginia Welty, Phyliss Higley, and Carolyn Meter have assisted in the presentations, as have teachers, parents, friends and relatives! The book, Sweet Clara and the Freedom Quilt by Deborah Hopkinson & James Ransome, has been presented to classes in the Lincoln Public Schools.

The LQG's "DISCOVER NEBRASKA, Honoring Nebraska Through Quilts," have been presented in these schools this spring:

March 29: Oconto/Roundhill (north of Lexington)

April 4: Randolph & April 5: West Lincoln and Norwood Park

April 6: Saratoga and Roper

April 9: Lincoln Christian School & April 10: Hartley

April 17: Faith Lutheran & May 4: Cavett

If you know children/grandchildren/teachers in your hometown who would like a presentation next fall, please email/call co-chairs: Shirley @ 467-3028, sranderson6@juno.com or Jean @ 784-3111. vjean430@aol.com.

"Chosen with Care:

Adopted Quilts from the James Collection"

The International Quilt Study Center announces the opening of "Chosen with Care: Adopted Quilts from the James Collection" at the Robert Hillestad Textiles Gallery in the Home Economics Building at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, May 14th - Sept. 4th, 2001. This exhibition of traditional and contemporary art quilts from the Center's collection features quilts adopted by individuals supporting the IQSC's Adopt-A-Quilt Program. The program offers quilt lovers an opportunity to "own" a piece of the collection while aiding in the efforts to raise funds in support of the IQSC's activities. The exhibition includes a graphic nineteenth century Windmill Log Cabin quilt, a rich red 1930s Poppy quilt created from a Marie Webster pattern, and a pair of quilts designed by Carol Bryer Fallert, a well-known studio art quilter.

Join us at the Hillestad Textiles Gallery on June 1st from 5:00 to 7:00pm for the "Chosen with Care" opening reception. Ardis and Bob James and members of our international board will be our special guests. At 5:30 pm, Ardis James will deliver a brief welcoming message. For information about the Adopt-a-Quilt program contact Rachelle Humiston at the University of Nebraska Foundation. (402/472-2151).
