

September Program – Kathy Moore, Program Chair

On September 10 Judi Robb and Nancy Graves (Robb 'n' Graves) from Manhattan, Kansas, will present their "From the Beginning" Trunk Show and tell how, since 1987, they have worked and learned together to make prize-winning quilts. They will show us approximately seventy of their quilts. If you want to learn how to do needle turn applique or if you need to brush up on your needle turning skills, sign up for their "Hearts and Vines" Wallhanging workshop on Tuesday, September 11. The class (for all skill levels) will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at All Saints Lutheran Church, 8251 Pioneers Blvd. Cost will be $25.

September Greeters

Greeters for the September meeting will be Donna Christensen and Lu Everson.

Reminder: Dues for 2001-2002

If you still have not remitted your dues for this year, please contact Beverly Vogel.

- Regular dues are $25, and $15 for seniors or anyone under the age of 18.
- Members receive our monthly newsletter, Plain Print, and a membership yearbook.

President's Column by Janiece Goin

Welcome to the new year of LQG. This is a large organization with many volunteers and I marvel at how our committee members take responsibility in fulfilling their assignments. Without you we could not function as an organization and be a light in the community and beyond. Thank you for your dedication and willingness to serve LQG and to promote quilting.

Show and Tell is one of the highlights of LQG meetings. Bring your fair entries to the September 10th meeting for all to enjoy. See you soon!

Penny McMorris, producer and host of the PBS special "The Great American Quilt," will present a lecture entitled "Crazy Quilts: the Japanese Connection" in conjunction with the International Quilt Study Center exhibition "Reflections of the Exotic East in American Quilts." Ms. McMorris' lecture, which will explore the influence of Japanese art and design on late nineteenth-century Crazy quilts, will be held at the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on Saturday, September 29, from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

The exhibition "Reflections of the Exotic East in American Quilts" will be held at the Lentz Center for Asian Culture at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln from September 16, 2001 to December 16, 2001. It will present a historical overview of the profound influence of Asian design on American quilting by examining the use of Eastern motifs and materials in quilts made between 1800 and 1950. The exhibition will include beautiful examples of chintz quilts, Crazy quilts, hexagon mosaic quilts, and twentieth-century kit quilts, all of which help explain the connection between Asian art and design and American quilts. A catalog with an introductory essay, photographs, and quilt descriptions will be available.

An opening reception with refreshments will be held on Sunday, September 16 from 2 to 4 p.m. and will feature a gallery talk by the exhibition's curator. A lunchtime gallery talk given by the curator will also be held Wednesday, October 10 at noon.

"Reflections of the Exotic East in American Quilts" is sponsored by the International Quilt Study Center, the Lentz Center for Asian Culture, the Nebraska Humanities Council, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. Public Programming sponsored by the Nebraska Humanities Council, the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, and the Asian Art and Culture Guild.

QUILTING SAFARI - Quilt Show News

The LQG Quilt Show will be held June 14-16 2002 at Lux Middle School.

Christy Stoner and Lorelee Novak, Co-Chairs

We've all heard of crazy quilts, but what about all those crazy quilters who donate their quilts to the Quilt Show Auction? Be a part of this craze and volunteer to be the Auction Chair! We need you! Call Christy Stoner at 489-9259 for more information.

NSQG News – from Diane Deahl

LQG members Jean Ang and Connie Strobe have been elected to the NSQG Board of Directors for 2002-2004. Jean will be assuming the two-year position as secretary for the state guild, and Connie will begin her two-year position as District I Director.

They will begin duties in January 2002, along with Diane Deahl, who will become President of NSQG at that time.

NSQG awards a number of people special distinction for outstanding contributions to the Nebraska quilt world at their yearly meeting, which was held this year in Kearney, NE, July 27-29. Lincoln Quilters Guild members who received awards include:

MonaJeanne Easter of Lincoln, Golden Thread award.

Sara and Byron Dillow of Fremont, Silver Thread award.

Cuddle Quilt Kick-Off Workshop - September 15 9:30-4:30

Emma Collins Building lower level conference room Tabitha - in Lincoln

Come work on a set of blocks for a great cuddle quilt. Sign up as a team of two - one can cut and press and one can sew. You will need a sewing machine, rotary cutting equipment and pot luck for lunch. Paper plates, cups and drink will be provided.

Please sign up so we have enough kits ready for the blocks. E-mail sue@logcabinquilts.com or call Roxanne O'Hare.

Regular days for Cuddle Quilts (including September) are the first Friday and Saturday of the month 9:30-4:30--come help with a great project and get acquainted.

Condolences

The members of the guild wish to express their condolences to Jan Stehlik. Jan's son Lin (age 43) died on July 25th after a brief illness. Lin had one son and one daughter.

Workshop News from Kathy Moore

On October 8 Sylvia Einstein will be coming from Belmont, Massachusetts to talk about commercially printed fabrics and their use in contemporary quilts. Sylvia made her first quilt in 1975 to celebrate the bicentennial of the United States. She has exhibited on four continents, appeared in numerous magazines, and lectures in the U.S. and Europe. Her workshop on Tuesday, October 9 will show you how to design quilts using big, bold prints and other unusual fabrics. You will work with kaleidoscope graph paper and pencils or magic markers. Then you will glue fabric scraps in an intuitive manner; and design and piece a wall hanging or quilt. The workshop will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and is suitable for all skill levels. Cost will be $25.

Travel Tip

Keep a travel kit filled with essential sewing supplies for on-the-go sewing. When you leave home, pop in a small project and matching thread. Don't use sewing supplies from the kit unless you are away from home, especially if there's a chance something won't get put back. (Ami Simms, Every Trick in the Book, 1990)

Welcome to the LQG Freindship block exchange. This year we will be presenting a series of blocks which will start very simply and progress to a bit more challenging. We hope that newer quilters will be able to further develop their piecing skills and hopefully more experienced quilters will enjoy playing with some fun blocks they may not have tried yet. For each block we will give fabric selection guidance, so that the blocks should work well together, but hopefully many of us will have the fabrics in our scrap baskets.

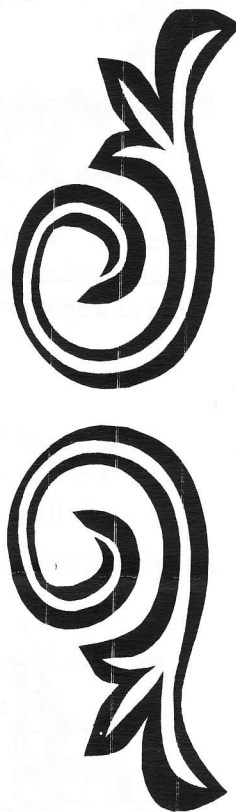

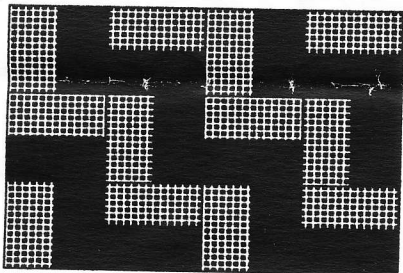

September Friendship Block--"Stairsteps"

- Use a navy solid and a plaid which contains navy and/or red.
- Cut a strip of each fabric 2 1/2 inches by 19 inches (the cross grain of a fat quarter will work well).
- Sew strips together lengthwise (width should now be 4 1/2 inches).
- Cut into four 4 1/2 inch units.

each unit will be 4 1/2" square
(finishes to 4 inches)

Pin the four units together. Each four units will equal one friendship exchange. The block winners can then assemble the units into a stairstep pattern, as shown below for a scrappy plaid look.

Resource Room

Remember to schedule a time to use the room. Please call Barb Schlegelmilch (483-2751) The University Place Art Center's hours are 10 am to 5 pm Monday thru Saturday.
