

October Program

On October 8th Sylvia Einstein will be coming from Belmont, Massachusetts to talk about commercially printed fabrics and their use in contemporary quilts. Sylvia made her first quilt in 1975 to celebrate the bicentennial of the United States. She has exhibited on four continents, appeared in numerous magazines, and lectures in the U.S. and Europe. Her workshop on Tuesday, October 9th will show you how to design quilts using big, bold prints and other unusual fabrics. You will work with kaleidoscope graph paper and pencils or magic markers. Then you will glue fabric scraps in an intuitive manner; and design and piece a wall hanging or quilt. The workshop will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and is suitable for all skill levels. Cost will be $25. If you haven't yet signed up for this class, contact Kathy Moore at 488-5620. There may still be openings. To visit Sylvia's web page, go to www.sheinstein.addr.com.

Greeters

Greeters for the October Meeting will be Jeanne Atkinson and Carol Rystrom.

Afternoon Workshops

The afternoon workshop meets at 1:00 p.m. on the 4th Monday of the month (with the exception of May when we meet the 3rd Mon) at Christ Lutheran Church 4325 Sumner. Everyone is welcome. We are always happy to invite "new" people to come. Please make this location correction in your membership booklet for future reference.

President's Column by Janiece Goin

What a fun evening spending time with quilters at Quilt Guild, Sept. 10, 2001. Then we were greeted the next morning with tragic news of terrorists hijacking four US planes used to destroy thousands of lives, including businesses and buildings. We sat stunned watching the World Trade Center twin towers collapse with so many people still in them. Many families are mourning the loss of loved ones. What can we do?

I received a call from a quilter who would like to give her quilt-in-progress to comfort a child who has lost a parent in this great tragedy. She wanted to know if other quilters would like to join her. Would you like to make a simple quilt for a child or family, demonstrating that others care?

I have left messages at the Red Cross and Salvation Army to find out if they could distribute these quilts. Because of the Plain Print deadline, I do not have that information at this time.

I would also like to remind people that we have fabric and kits at the resource room for anyone to use for cuddle quilts and Sue Volkmer and Roxanne Ohare will bring kits to the guild meeting. By working on a quilt for a victim's family, we can think of and sympathize with those who are so intimately involved in this tragedy.

Raffle Tickets

Mary Swinton (423-1022) is the chair for raffle tickets. Contact her for more tickets, and to turn in your money and ticket stubs for the drawing to be held at the Quilt Show next summer. If every member of LQG would sell just one book of ten raffle tickets, nearly 3000 of the 4999 raffle tickets will be sold.

Thank You

Many thanks for a job well done to Sheila Green and Lana Jo Reffert who served as treasurer and assistant treasurer. The books were audited and found correct by Deb Plasek, Kari Ronning and Carroll Dischner.

November Workshop

On November 12 Molly Anderson of Minden, Nebraska, will tell us how she makes her gorgeous hand appliqued and embellished hexagon-watercolor quilts. She says nothing she has done is "new except the fabric selection and placement." Come to guild meeting to see her work and hear how it's done. Molly doesn't give workshops so we have Judie Zinn coming from Omaha to teach her method of hand applique. If you didn't get a chance to attend the September workshop or you want to learn more about this design technique, sign up for this workshop on Tuesday, November 13. The workshop will run from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and is suitable for all skill levels. Cost will be $20.

Discover Nebraska through quilts

We have made our own Discover Nebraska quilt to be used in the Lincoln schools. The individual blocks are about the same, just a new format. Makers of the various blocks were Jean Davie, Jean Ang, Brenda Carlson, Carolyn Meter, Sheila Green, Lucille Lenz, June Reta, and Phyllis Higley. June Reta laid out the plan to follow, Jean Ang set the blocks together, Lucille Lenz did the machine quilting, and Sheila Green did the binding. Shirley Anderson is preparing the work sheet for the children. The first scheduled school presentation will be at Roper School on October 15th. We are always in need of more volunteers to help with the presentations. Come join us and spend a fun and rewarding few hours helping children learn about quilts. Call any one of us if you can help out with a worthwhile project. Our names are in the membership yearbook.

Lincoln Quilters Guild General Meeting
Monday, September 10, 2001 at 7 p.m.

President Janiece Goin welcomed everyone and introduced Vice President Kathy Moore who introduced our guest speakers, Judi Robb and Nancy Graves (Robb 'n' Graves). The program was titled "In the Beginning".

Call to Order: President Janiece Goin called the meeting to order.

Minutes: The May minutes were approved as printed in the Summer Plain Print.

Treasurer's Report: Lana Jo Reffert reported as of July 31, 2001 the Guild's checking account balance was $4,083.19 and CD's totals, as of 9/10/01, was $33,966.69.

Income was generated by Membership, $472.50 and Quilt Show 2002, $19.00; resulting in income of $491.50.

Expenses were incurred by Discover Nebraska, $27.30, Fair Awards, $25.00, Newsletter, $82.54, and Quilt Show 2002 $346.79, resulting in expenses of 481.63.

The Treasurer's report was approved as presented.

Announcements:

Thanks to our Greeters: Donna Christensen and Lu Everson

Thanks to the Refreshments Committee: Alfrieda Meyer, Chair, Kathy Griffin, Lora Yardley, Lynn Wallace, Stephanie Whitson, Carol Rystrom, Joyce Donlan, and Elizabeth Sterns.

Thank you notes received from: Kevin and Diane Hofferber for a cuddle quilt; Kelli Backman and Susan Scott of the Y's Parent Center for Cuddle Quilts; The Czaplewski Family for a Cuddle Quilt; American Parkinson Disease Association for Diane Deahl's generous donation and our dedication and willingness to provide community Outreach and service to those afflicted with and affected by Parkinson's disease; Carol Kroeker of the People's City Mission for Cuddle Quilts; and Mrs. Donna Svoboda for recognition of winning the "Best Quilt" at the Lancaster County Fair.

Mini-Raffle Stephanie Whitson and DeeHines announced winners of the mini-raffle this evening. Remember that the mini-raffle supports the scholarship committee. Mini-Quilts are needed to continue the scholarship program. Congratulations to Jeanne Garvin who won a quilt made by Connie Strobe; to Kathy Spitsen for winning the Mary Ellen Hopkins Book and to Sandra Gruntorad for winning a quilt made by Joan Speidell.

The International Quilt Study Center announces two exciting events coming up this weekend: On Friday September 14 at 2:00 p.m., studio quilt artist Mary Catherine Lamb will present a slide lecture that incorporates her sense of humor, her quilts and influences, including the use of fabrics from the period 1940-1960. The lecture will be held in Room 11 in the Home Economics Building on East Campus. Michael James promises her lecture will be a "hoot and a holler". Also this weekend -- don't miss the opening of the latest IQSC exhibit called "Reflections of Exotic East in American Quilts."

2001 Nebraska State Fair Winners: Peg Pennell of Omaha, NE -- Best Non-Functional Quilt; Dorothy Neill of Lincoln, NE -- Lincoln Quilters Guild Founders Award; Peggy Bruns of Lexington, NE -- Lincoln Quilter's Guild Award for Best First Quilt. Each recipient was presented with a special ribbon and a cash award of $25.00. Congratulations!

2001 Lancaster County Fair Winners: Donna Svoboda of Lincoln, NE -- Best Quilt. Donna received a special ribbon and a cash award of $25. Congratulations!

Resource Room Sign up is at the table by the refreshment window. Contact Barb Schlegelmilch.

Welcome ten guests this evening.

Quilters Newsletter Magazine September 2001 provided an editorial regarding the International Quilt Study Center located here, in Lincoln, NE. Mary Leman Austin, editor for the QNM, visited the IQSC this summer and shares her experience.

Vice President: Kathy Moore presented the following highlights of the Lincoln Quilters Guild participation in the Quilt Nebraska event held this summer:

Sara and Byron Dillow received the Silver Thread Award for Dedication. Mona Jeanne Easter was awarded the Golden Thread award for chairing the NQSG Library Committee for the past 13 years. LQG members accepting positions of leadership in the Nebraska State Quilt Guild include the following: Jean Ang as secretary for 2002-2004, Connie Strobe as District I Representative for 2002-2004, and Diane Deahl as president for 2002.

Penny McMorris will be giving a free public lecture entitled "Crazy Quilts: The Japanese Connection" on Saturday September 29 at 10:30 a.m. in the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery Auditorium. This public lecture is being held in conjunction with the IQSC sponsored exhibition entitled "Reflections of the Exotic East in American Quilts" held at the Lenz Center for Asian Culture.

October Program -- Sylvia Einstein: Don't delay in registering for her workshop as it is filling fast.

Art Center Liaison: Jo Anne Bair announced that the Art Center will need our help at the Peek at Christmas event at the Art Center on the first weekend in November. Help is needed with watching the rooms and a bake sale, both baking and staffing a booth. Sign up with Jo Anne Bair immediately. Vicky Skuodas offered to make a wallhanging or a small quilt as a fundraiser for the Art Center.

Condolences to Mona Jeanne Easter following the death of her husband, and to Jan Stehlik upon the death of her son. May you be both comforted and blessed with the many friends you have with the Lincoln Quilters Guild.

Standing Committee Reports

Discover Nebraska now has their very own quilt. Thank you to the many volunteers who helped make this quilt. Fourth grade classes are encouraged to sign up with Sheila Green to receive instruction with the Discover Nebraska Education Committee. This project was featured in the Lincoln Journal/Star this summer and made front page billing in the State Guild Newsletter, thanks to an article submitted by Jean Ang.

Fall Retreat Deb Bauer Knopp and Martha Lane reported that the Fall Retreat was filled to capacity. If there is anyone who suddenly can not attend, please send your regrets immediately to Kate Laucomer, Martha Lane, Sheryl Jana, or Martha Lane as soon as possible as there is a waiting list.

Quilt Show 2002 Loreale Novak and Christy Stoner announced that the LQG Quilt Show will be held June 14, 15, 16, 2002. Our raffle quilt is entitled "Tyger Stars" thus our theme for the show is "Quilting Safari". A Raffle Quilt Travel Agent is still needed. Contact Loreale or Christy. Chairpersons are needed for the Vendors Mall, Registration, Decoration, Greeters, White Glovers, and Ticket Sales. Quilts are needed for the auction.

Challenge: Breast Cancer Awareness and a UFO Challenge. Any project or projects that you started at least 5 years ago and finish for this quilt show.

Raffle tickets can be picked up at the back table. Each member is encouraged to sell one packet of 10 tickets. Contact Mary Swinton for further information.

Friendship Blocks: Kim Bock and Linda Loker announced the winners for this months' Friendship Blocks. Congratulations to Gloria Smith and Tana Kinneman.

Mini-Raffle Stephanie Whitson and Dee Hines announced winners of the mini-affle this evening. Remember that the mini-affle supports the scholarship committee. Mini-Quilts are needed to continue the scholarship program. Congratulations to Jeanne Garvin who won a quilt made by Connie Strobe; to Kathy Spitzzen for winning the Mary Ellen Hopkins Book and to Sandra Gunteral for winning a quilt made by Joan Spidell.

Santa Socks: Joyce Donlan encouraged all to participate in the Santa Sock event in November to help contribute supplies and funds to the Angels of the Night and Friendship Home. Patterns for the socks were on the table by refreshments. For further information contact JoyceDonlan.

Old Business

How many people enjoy the Bus Trips? (Lots of hands were raised. Who would like to chair this committee? (No hands remained up.) We need a chairperson to organize this committee or this bus trip will not happen.

New Business

Ads will be accepted for persons interested in having members of LQG to make quilts for them. Ads can be placed for $5 with a 30 word limit. These ads will run in one issue of the Plain Print.

Please note an error in the yearbook: Anita Dover noted that the Afternoon Quilters meet at Christ Lutheran Church at 4325 Sumner. See Page 6 of the yearbook and make the correction please.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:03 p.m. Show and Tell followed as did the opportunity to have quilts photographed. Most quilts shown were exhibited at the state and county fairs. LQG members who were instrumental in the exhibit and supervision of quilt displays were recognized and thanked, particularly Lana Jo Reffert and Chris Wieggers for their work at the Nebraska State Fair. Minutes submitted by: Jody Hefley, Secretary

October Friendship Block – “Easy Roman Block”

- Use a beige, cream or a cream on cream print, and scraps in fall colors
- Cut a 10” square of beige
- Cut about five to eight strips of varying widths and lengths, in fall colors
- Draw a diagonal line on the right side of the square, from corner to corner
- Draw another line ¼” from the first line (see #1)
- Using your longest strip,(at least 14”), with the right sides together, line the strip up along the quarter inch line and cover the first line drawn. (see #2)
- Sew ¼” from the edge of the strip (this will follow the diagonal line which is underneath)
- Flip the strip so that the right side shows and iron
- Line up another strip, right sides together, sew and flip (see #3)
- Continue until one half of the square is covered with strips (see #4)
- Do not trim off the excess, block winners will square up to 9 ½” (finishes to 9”)

Scholarship/Research Fund

The Lincoln Quilters Guild announces that the Scholarship/Research Fund is offering an award of $500 this year to one worthy applicant. This is a guild project of long standing and has contributed to the pursuits of graduate students, quilters preparing for special groups such as museums, schools, and AQSG, and individuals testing specific products and techniques. You need not be a guild member to apply.

The Scholarship committee for the 2001/2002 year are Susan Johnson Russell (chair), Jean Ang, and Martha Dennis. Application forms with specific information are available by writing:

Scholarship Committee
Lincoln Quilters Guild
P. O. Box 6861
Lincoln, NE 68506

Completed applications must be postmarked by March 1, 2002 to be considered for this year's award. If you have questions, please submit them to any committee member. This just might be the means to accomplish your dreams!

Dear Lincoln Quilters Guild Members and Friends

I feel like a fragile piece of fabric, in this beautiful quilt
of God's world,
among other fabric pieces,
some stronger than I,
some more beautiful,
and some even more fragile,
held together by prayer
and all your loving stitches.

Thank you for all your cards and caring messages.
-Jan Stehlik

State Fair

The Lincoln Guild is really the backbone of the volunteers for the State Fair. A big thank you to all of you that helped with the fair this year. -Lana Jo Reffert

Condolences

Please remember Dr. James Frans, husband of Gwen Frans, a member of LQG. He died in late July or early August but not absolutely sure of the date. Even though late, Gwen would still appreciate our notes of sympathy.
Note from Anita Dover

Program Notes from Your VP

The Hearts and Vines class given by Judi Robb and Nancy Graves on September 11 was a big success. Everyone left with their project well under way and we all learned a lot. Scholarships have been given to Deborah Scherer and Judy Lutgen. As long as we keep getting Mini Quilts to raffle at our meeting, so we can add money to our account, we'll continue to give a couple of scholarship for each class.

The November class with Judie Zinn is another applique class and promises to be fun and informative. If you couldn't attend our September class be sure to register for this one. Send the registration slip from this newsletter right away to save your space in the class.

We won't have a January class. BUT, the class in February will be very special so be sure to get your registration forms in as soon as you get the next newsletter. This class will sell out FAST! Don't miss out.

News from the University Place Art Center

Please join us for . . . PEEK: A HOLIDAY TRADITION

November 2, 10 - 8

November 3, 10 - 5

November 4, 12 - 5

Now in its 24th year, this wonderland featuring gifts of fine art and contemporary craft is sure to delight. Do your holiday shopping in an elegant environment; with carols from the grand piano, the sounds and scents of the holidays, including a bountiful bake sale, and festive décor throughout. Visit the displays of holiday quilts and Santas as you enjoy a complementary cup of coffee. On Saturday, youth activities for ages 6 and up in our new education wing will entertain the kids while mom shops leisurely.

Proceeds will benefit the University Place Art Center - home of the Lincoln Quilters Guild library and studio.

The University Place Art Center would like our help in staffing the rooms (white gloving in reverse) and help with the bake sale. LQG will be hosting the coffee room held in our resource room. We will serve coffee, at no cost to us, and have a chance to tell people about Quilt Guild as well as sell our own raffle tickets. The shifts are about 3 hours long and we do not need to handle money. If you can't work a shift perhaps you can bake something for the bake sale. I will have sign up sheets at the next LQG meeting or you may call me at 488-0344 to sign up early or ask any questions.

Thanks....Jo Anne Bair

LQG Quilt Show 2002

Quilting Safari

June 14-15-16, 2002

Lux Middle School - 79th & High Streets - Lincoln, NE

Featuring "Tyger Stars" -- 2002 Raffle Quilt -- created by Phyllis Moore

This will be an exciting and busy year as we prepare for the 2002 LQG quilt show. The show will feature special exhibits, challenges, demonstrations, children's activities, a merchant's mall and probably a few things we haven't thought of yet. Any ideas you'd like to share? Everyone's help and support is needed to make a successful show.

Current committee chairs are:

Jean Atkinson	Publicity
Becky Haynes	Children's Program
Mary Swinton	Raffle Tickets
Sheila Green & Brenda Carlson	Education/Demonstration Program
Deb Scherer & Nancy Olson	Breast Cancer Awareness Challenge
Lynn DeShon & Phyllis Higley	Quilt Auction

These ladies may be calling on you to lend a hand, please consider what you can do to help.

Committees still in need of chairs are:

Vendors -- Invite, select and arrange for vendors for the merchant's mall.

Registration -- Collect registrations for show exhibits.

Decor/Set Up -- Help plan the decor of the show and arrangement/set up of exhibits.

Take Down -- Undo the Decor/Set Up when the show is over.

Greeters -- Recruit and schedule people to serve as greeters during the show.

White Glovers -- Recruit and schedule people to serve as white glovers

Opening Evening Reception -- Plan the reception for LQG members and guests on Thursday evening 6/13/02. (Any of the small groups want to take this on?)

At this time the most pressing job to fill is that of "Travel Agent" for the Raffle Quilt. This person arranges for the Raffle Quilt to be on display at various places around the state. There are many members of the Guild who travel to various places in the state on a regular basis and would be willing to transport the quilt so it is not necessary that the "Travel Agent" will personally have to take the Raffle Quilt wherever it goes. (We already have volunteers to go to Vogies to deliver and pick up the quilt -- now all we need is a "Travel Agent" to contact Vogies to see if they can display the quilt and make arrangements for when.)

If you are thinking you wouldn't mind doing one of these jobs but don't want to commit to months of committee meetings; this is the place for you! This committee promises to be a "minimal meeting" committee; meetings that are 'short and sweet' and only when absolutely necessary. For questions, suggestions or to volunteer to chair one of these committees, please call Christy Stoner (489-9259) or Lorelee Novak (423-3863)

2002 AUCTION DONATIONS
REWARDS/INCENTIVES BEGIN AT THE OCTOBER MEETING
DON'T MISS OUT

Be sure to turn in your donations early. Our goal for the 2002 Auction is 100 items. To encourage you to turn in your items early, we have a couple of "Thank You" gifts for each item you donate. IN ADDITION, at each meeting we will have a drawing from the names of the persons who have donated items for an additional gift. So if you donate, early your chances of winning are better because the numbers are lower. Plus if your name is not drawn it will remain for future monthly drawings. Suggestions for auction donations: quilts (any size), quilt tops, cloth dolls, quilted clothing (jackets, vests, etc), quilted table runners, mantle coverings, Christmas tree skirts, Christmas stockings, pillows, pillow quilts, combo items (doll w/bed, doll bed w/quilt, etc). Please be sure and drop off your donations early to Lynn DeShon or Phyllis Higley.

CLOSET CLEANER CHALLENGE (aka UFO's)

Here's a challenge for those of you who might be getting a guilty conscience over incomplete projects stacking up in drawers, closets, corners, on chairs or the dining room table. This is also for those of you who don't feel quite right about taking another quilting class because you already have a "few" projects started. The Quilt Show 2002 committee challenges you to dig out a project (or more) and finish it in time for the 2002 quilt show. The show is June 14-15-16, 2002 -- plenty of time to make a dent in the closet clutter. Only one condition to the challenge: the project must be at least 5 years old. Old projects you've inherited from your mother-in-law or some other "older" quilter qualify. Blocks or tops you picked up at a garage sale or antique shop and haven't been inspired to do anything with will also qualify. To keep you motivated (one of the reasons the project ended up in the closet in the first place is that class was over and you lost your inspiration/motivation right?) we are asking you to register your project for the challenge at the October meeting. You'll have a lot of encouragement along the way and just think of all the new "stuff" you will be able to get when you make room in the closet. And who knows -- Quilt Show 2002 may have some real vintage displays! from Lorelee Novak

To all Lincoln Quilters Guild members:

Most quilters know just how inextricably quilting is woven into the fabric of life. Most of you are just as adamant about your quilting or art as I am. When confronted with tragedy, our first instinct is to turn to our art to express our emotions in ways that we can't always find words or other actions to express. I wanted to let you know about a special project for quilters and artists to voice their conviction and pride in the American spirit. It is the effort of the Quilt Heritage Foundation with which I am now associated. Please take a look at the supporting website: www.americanspiritquilts.com. As you will see the project is two fold. One purpose is the creation of quilts to provide comfort and warmth. We are urging quilters to make quilts for use in their communities to support children's charities. We all do this over and over again but this is a call for a renewed effort. It is much the same as the call we issued in 1999 with the Quilts for Oklahoma project. The main difference being that we are urging quilters to find suitable charities in their own communities to benefit from their work. We make this decision based on our learning experiences with the Oklahoma project. If you want to make a financial donation to the Red Cross, consider donating a quilt of sufficient quality that it could perhaps be used as a raffle or silent auction piece for the chapter of the Red Cross in your area. Quilts are a powerful fundraising tool. The second arm of the project is aimed at the creation of quilts that express our American Spirit. We know that quilters respond to the events of our times by creating works of art. The American Spirit Quilt Project is our attempt to recognize the heroes and acts of heroism that we are seeing emerge from this unspeakable act of terrorism. Over the weeks to come, there will be countless images and stories that will inspire us and move us into our studios to capture our emotions. We are hoping that you will share those quilts with the American public and inspire others with your art. Let us show the world that our American Spirit is stronger than ever. Please share this message and the website with all your quilting friends and artists. God Bless America!

Quilt Shows at the University Place Art Center from Sheila Green

Have you visited the Lincoln Quilters Guild Resource Room? Material Girls (Jo Anne Bair, Brenda Carlson, Sheila Green, Carolyn Meter, Elaine Nielsen, Bev Vogel) have hung a new show every six weeks since last February. Visitors to the University Place Art Center have enjoyed viewing our quilts and the conversation that they spark with the LQG members as they staff the Resource Room.

We would like to thank the following LQG members who have generously lent their quilts for us to display: Sandy Anderson, Jo Anne Bair, Jo Baxter, Brenda Carlson, Mona Jeanne Easter, Millie Fauquet, Linda Gapp, Mary Ghormley, Sharlee Green, Sheila Green, Cindy Hanzel, Heddy Kohl, Judy Bucklin Lane, Lucile Lenz, Marlene Marx, Carolyn Meter, Anne Parrott, Hope Partridge, Sonja Schneider, Gloria Smith, Doris Von Seggern, Ginny Welty, and Lois Wilson.
