

PROGRAMS AND CLASSES FOR 2002/2003

Now is the time to mark your calendars for our 2002/2003 programs and classes. We hope each of you will find something in these programs and/or classes that will intrigue and inspire you.

First, a little about the class registration processes. Class registrations will again be open to members only until one month before the class. At that time, class registrations will be accepted by nonmembers. Registrations will remain open until each class is filled; however, they are firm only when payment is received for that particular class. A SASE (self-addressed and stamped envelope) and a separate check, payable to LQG, must accompany each class registration. Registration fees will be nonrefundable unless the class has a waiting list and someone else can fill that slot.

A letter from the President...

I would like to thank everyone involved in the quilt show. I was there every day for periods of time, and know we wouldn't have pulled it off without all of you. I really enjoyed some of the new ideas that we added to the show this year, I especially enjoyed the demonstrations. So again a big THANK YOU.

This will be a busy year for most of us, including myself.
I have two teenage daughters, ages sixteen and thirteen, and they are involved in many activities. I also work full time in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) at St. Elizabeths Hospital. I have worked there since 1974, 28 years that seemed to fly by.

Even though my days will be full, I will be dedicated to fulfilling my duties as the President of the Lincoln Quilters Guild.

I will be looking forward to seeing you all in September.
Thank you

Sheryl Jonas

Quilting Safari, the LQG 2002 Quilt Show was a huge success due in a large part to the volunteers who gave of their time and talents. A big thank you to all who helped! A cell phone (Nokia) and a camera part (Cannon) were found at the show. If either one belongs to you please call Lorelee Novak at 423-3863.

"We thank all the dedicated volunteers who signed up to White Glove at the quilt Show. We were especially happy with those who called us to volunteer and those who were willing to work more than one shift. We did not have to make any phone calls to fill the schedules. Great job, ladies!" – Ann Fingeret & Janice Kinchoff

"A great big Thank You to all volunteers who helped with the quilt hanging for the Quilt Show. It could not have been done without your great help. Your hard work made for a successful Quilt Show." – Sharlee Green

Congratulations to Lois Wilson, winner of NSQG Cather Quilt Contest.

Lois Wilson won first place for her quilt "Shimmering Cottonwoods" in the Patchwork Images: Cather and Quilts contest. The contest, sponsored by the Nebraska State Quilt Guild, was held in conjunction with this year's Willa Cather symposium in Red Cloud, Nebraska.

LQG Quilters Donate to Lincoln's Rape/Spouse Abuse Crisis Center
Benefit

A benefit Birdhouse Auction for the Lincoln Rape/Spouse Abuse Crisis Center on May 2002, featured items by several LQG members.

The "Tweet Retreat Quilt" by the Well Rounded Quilters, Diane Deahl, Becky Haynes, Sheryl Jonas, Karalene Smith, Shelly Burge, and Ruth Kupfer, was the last item on the Live Auction and raised over $300. Another Birdhouse Wall Quilt, by the Monday Night Small Quilt Group including Deb Scherer, Nancy Olson, Carol Ruskamp, and Sue Rosenau, raised about $80.

Cindi Pape's painted birdhouse titled "Ships Ahoy Lighthouse" was a popular item on the live auction, going for over $75.00. The Silent Auction included items created by Cindi Pape and Lorelee Novak.

Congratulations to these (as well as any LQG members inadvertently omitted) for their artistic contributions to a worthy cause.

Other winners included: Second Place: "An Archbishop's Legacy: From Yellow Rocks to Blessed Stones," by Charlette Elm of Apple Valley, MN. Third Place: "January Solitude" by Carol Kusek of Albion, NE. Honorable Mention-Traditional: "Picking Cherries" by Peggy Parrott of Lakewood, CO. Honorable Mention-Innovative: "Solemn Magic" by Virginia Spiegel of Nebraska City, NE.

"A Witch's Tea"

Omaha-Lincoln Quilt Guilds' Fall Retreat
September 27-29, 2002
Eastern Nebraska 4-H Center—Gretna, Nebraska
Hosted by the Omaha Quilters' Guild
Meals, lodging, activities: Total cost $71.00

The spell has been cast for a witchy weekend! A special brew of friends, fabric, food, and fun is promised. We have the cook in the kitchen to do our dirty work, the phones are mysteriously silent, and little gremlins have been banished for a couple of days. Create your own sewing magic or join us for planned potions, spells and activities—the choice is yours.

Back by popular demand—massages and Tai Chi. The massages will be in a massage chair—$12 for 15 minutes—mesmerizing. If you wish to enjoy a massage, check the registration form. Payment for massage to be made directly, while at retreat.

Registrations to be postmarked AUGUST 1st OR LATER. Complete the registration form and make check payable to Omaha Quilters' Guild for $71. Confirmations to be mailed after Sept. 1, 2002. Initially, 40 spots for each guild will be reserved until September 1, 2002. After that date, registration is "first come, first served".

Mail To: Pat Sears, 5304 Western Ave., Omaha, NE 68132

★Linda M. Mager ★

Born August 1, 1954, Died June 22, 2002

Past President Lincoln Quilt Guild - 1995-96

We remember Linda as a can-do person. Linda's family, her support of their activities were first and foremost in her life. She enjoyed people, her employment and quilting. Her home reflected her collection of snowmen and teapots.

Those who knew Linda and Jim's occupation often surprised her with pig fabric.

Linda made a valiant fight against her cancer. She faced both her cancer and her death "head on." Her concern for others was evident to the end. She left a legacy of example to all of how to live and how to die. We shall miss her!

LQG- General Meeting MINUTES: - May 13, 2002 - Seventh Day Adventist Church - 7:00 P.M.

"If your only tool is a hammer, then all your solutions will be nails" --Sandy McMillan

Janiece Goin welcomed all guest members and speakers.

Kathy Moore introduced our guest speaker, Sandy McMillan.

"If there is a but on the end, it's not done." --Sandy McMillan

The business meeting was called to order at 8:12 p.m.

The minutes were approved as printed in the Plain Print.

The treasurers' report was approved as printed in the Plain Print.

Sheryl Jonas made the following announcements:
We had six guests this evening.

The refreshment committee was Pat Mahoney, Jo

Baxter, LaDonna Pankoke, Phyllis Horn, Pat Hanssen, Carol Christensen, Jean Ang, and Mary Hild. Thank you for the refreshments.

Remember to pay your membership dues before you get busy with summer.

Janiece Goin expressed courtesy concerns for guild members Linda Mager, Connie Strobe, Joyce Donlan, Sonya Schneiders' husband and Kathy Kinneman.

Standing Committee Reports

Quilt Show 2002 reported by Lorelee Novak and Christy Stoner

--We have a total of 70 auction quilts donated (35 of them this evening). All donations will be on display at the Resource Room.

--Quilt Show will offer 3 demonstration and lectures each day of the quilt show. They are free with paid admission.

-- Drop off dates for show quilts id scheduled for June 6 and June 8 from 9a.m. - 4 p.m.

-- The reception is scheduled for Thursday June 13 from 7-9 p.m.

--The Raffle Quilt will be at the Omaha Quilt Guild Meeting, the Suzuki Spring Recital, and then the Quilted Moose until the quilt show.

--Chris Taylor was thanked for selling the most raffle tickets. ($250 worth)

--Connie Strobe is looking for volunteers to assist with security on Wednesday and/or Thursday night of the quilt show.

Cuddle Quilts reported by Roxanne O'Hare that there were two quilts donated by St. Marks United Methodist Church. Bryan LGH West thanked us for our efforts and informed us that they could use 150-200 quilts per year.

Diana Dreith and Cindy Weyers reported that the Bus Trip went well and they had so much fun they will be chairing it again next year.

JoAnne Bair reported that the Resource Room needs volunteers to cover 20 hours per week.

Discover NE reported that Sharlee Green donated two "30's style" quilt tops. Discover NE has provided education to 1400 school children this year.

Friendship Blocks were paper-pieced high heels this month. Winners of the Mini Raffle included Elizabeth Stearns (pillow), Rae Jean Ziegelbein (book), and Jean Ang (wall hanging made by Lois Wilson).

Old Business

The Finance Committee Budget was offered for a final vote. A motion was made by Caroline Smith to increase the budget for LQG's own library books from $250 to $500. Kari Ronning seconded the motion.

Martha Dennis made a motion to accept the budget, with the change of the aforementioned motion, as presented. Nancy Pierce seconded the motion. The budget was accepted.

Dear Diane & Lincoln Quilters Guild,
Thank you for the lovely gifts presented the afternoon of the drawing for the raffle quilt on June 16.
What a nice memento: the picture of "Tyger Stars," matted and framed with a collage on the back of the framed picture showing the postcard and the backs of the quilt and the postcard. How clever!
The gift certificate to University Place Art Center is frosting on the cake!
My appreciation to Diane and to the Guild,
Phyllis Moore
