

On Monday, May 12, Lyn Mann from Lake Forest, CA, will present "Slick Tricks," a lecture that features handy little quilting tricks that Lyn has learned over the years. She says this is her most popular lecture. The April 2001 issue of "Quilters Newsletter" had a "Slick Tricks" article by Lyn that was so popular with its readers that the magazine has contracted with her to do two articles a year on this subject. Lyn is a quilter, national and international teacher, author, and writer, and has appeared on HGTV's Simply Quilts.

In Lyn's class "There's No Such Thing As an Ugly Fabric" on Tuesday, May 13, participants will construct a simple scrap quilt while learning how to make any fabric (whether it is ugly or just hard to use) look great depending on what you put with it. The registration for this class is included in this newsletter.

NOTE:  Resource Room Quilt Displays

We thank Jim Mager for sharing his wife Linda's quilts during February and March.

"April Showers Bring May Flowers" is our current theme. Thanks to Jo Anne Bair, Brenda Carlson, Sheila Green, Lucile Lenz, Carolyn Meter, Elaine Nielson, Marilyn Rembolt and Chris Wiegers for brightening the Resource Room April and May. We receive many positive comments from Art Center staff and visitors.

Nebraska State Fair will have the needlework book and entry form available on the Internet May 1, 2003. The web site is www.statefair.org

Remember that the Lincoln Quilters Guild offers a ribbon and $25 for the following contests.

- Founders Award - must to 65 years of age
- Wallhanging or Miniature- best entry in this category
- First Quilt

The Pride of Nebraska contest also offers a ribbon and $25 for a quilt that reflects Nebraska's heritage. The Nebraska State Quilt Guild sponsors this contest. The quilt can be any size.

I need your help! Sign up to hang the quilts or to white glove at the May meeting. You can call me at 421-7502 or email me at tgapp@neb.rr.com for a time slot. Last year, we had 342 quilts at the state fair and I am looking forward to another great quilt display. -----Linda Gapp

Review of LQG Library Policy.....

Our library collection is housed at the University Place Art Center , 2601 N.48th, on the second floor. The center is open Mon-Sat 10 - 5.

LQG members may check out books during the summer months or anytime the art center is open. A large blue notebook contains the entire library listings. After nearly 4 months of waiting, our bookcases are finally in place in the Resource Room. Please continue to keep the room as tidy as possible as it serves many uses for the guild and the Art Center. We will be doing some rearranging this summer. Stop by and admire the shelves and check out a book.

To check out a book:

1. Remove card from book , sign your name, phone number and date of checkout.
2. Place card in small basket.
3. Check out is for one month and limited to two books at a time.
4. Return books to the return box or to the next monthly meeting.

I was surprised and delighted when Wendy called, even more so when she disclosed her message. It has been a satisfying and rewarding, stimulating, and educational experience to be a part of Lincoln Quilters Guild. I consider that I am still a part of Lincoln Quilters Guild, and cherish each contact.

Thank you, quilters of Lincoln, for the honor of being named a life member.

MINUTES:Lincoln Quilters Guild April Meeting

April 13, 2003

President Sheryl Jonas welcomed everyone, and introduced Gloria Smith. Gloria was one of the quilters who helped with the Prairie Festival at Irving Middle School. One of the students, Neil Murdock showed the pillow that he had made during the festival.

Program: Donna introduced Cindy Brick from Castle Rock, CO. Cindy presented a program entitled "God bless the U.S.A. - Patriotism in Cloth", featuring 200 years of patriotism in themes and fabric.

The minutes of the March meeting were approved as printed in the Plain Print.

The Treasurer's report was approved as printed in the Plain Print. Carolyn Meter presented the budget for the 2003-4 guild year. The Finance Committee worked out the budget, considering reduced revenues from the last few years. Some income line items were reduced to match the projected incomes for the following year, as were some expenditure line items. The budget will be voted in during the May meeting.

Announcements:

We had 15 guests this evening.

Thank you to the Refreshments committee.

A clipboard was passed around for Greeters and Refreshment Committee sign-ups for next year.

Thank you's from Jo Morton and Friendship Home were shared.

The Hewitt Place will host Ricky Clark from Oberlin, OH. She will discuss the exhibit "Amish Quilts and Amish Culture" on Wednesday, April 16th, 2003 at 3:00 pm.

The Haymarket Farmers' Market is looking for more exhibitors and sellers for Saturday mornings from May to October.

St. Monica's is holding a benefit luncheon on Tuesday, April 21, 2003. This is a Thank You for the guild's many years of quilt donations to St. Monica's.

The Czech Festival will be held on May 4, 2003 from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm at the Moose Lodge, 4901 N 56th St in Lincoln. The group would like to have some guild members quilting during the festival. If anyone is interested in participating, call Jeanette Pribyl Smith at 489-1908

At Home with Mary will be held on June 13th with time slots of 10 am, 2 pm, and 7pm. Tickets are on sale for $20 for any session, and each time slot includes an array of food selections.

Membership dues are being taken by Carolyn Bowman, and will do so next month as well.

Committee Reports:

Nominations Committee Chair Wendy Ray presented the slate of officers for 2003-4, and they were voted in unanimously.

Discovery NE - The Wednesday Girls have been documenting the quilts that have been donated to Discover NE. With others, they are also active participants in the grade school visits. Over the current school year, they have visited 23 elementary schools, 71 classrooms, and volunteered for 505 hours. Channel 5 has taped a one-hour video that features quilting in Lincoln. The Discover NE segment is the 3rd part of the hour that is being broadcast during the month of April. A videocassette copy is available for checkout through the library.

The Art Center will be having a fund raising auction on April 25th, with several guild members donating items for the benefit. Cost is $25 to attend the evening. The guild donated funds to purchase bricks commemorating the founding members of the guild. They can be viewed at the Art Center.

Friendship Blocks had 6 winners: Ruth Hicks, Barb Burton, Marilyn Rembolt, Genie Sullivan, Anita Ahrens, and Sandy Gruntorad.

The MCGRR Raffle earned $373 on the 4 donated quilts. The winners were:

PUBLIC EDUCATION

This year LQG has purchased books for Lincoln's Public Elementary Schools. "The Quiltmakers Gift" or "The Seasons Sewn-a Year in Patchwork" are being delivered to the schools with a bookplate stating that the book has been donated by LQG. A thank you has been received by Philip Schoo, Superintendent of Schools. Brenda Carlson and Sheila Green have worked with Donna Ewoldt, Media Specialist for LPS, in the selection of and approval by the School Board for this donation.

DISCOVER NEBRASKA

We have completed our third successful year taking Discover Nebraska to the fourth grade classrooms. This year we will present to 23 elementary schools, 71 classrooms!! It is estimated that Lincoln Quilt Guild members have volunteered 505 hours for this project during the 2002-2003 school year. We thank the Wednesday Girls as they continue to document the quilts that have been donated for this project. Our Lead Presenters include: Jean Ang, Sheila Green, Lucile Lenz and June Reta. Assists: Brenda Carlson, Sally Gowin, Sharlee Green, Carolyn Meter, Dorothy Neill, Merna Phillips, Midge Reeder and Virginia Welty. We thank the Guild for their support in this Public Education Project.

Lucile Lenz and Dorothy Neil were interviewed by Ruth Ann Lyness, a host of the channel 5 program "Aging Services, Live and Learn." This was part of a four program series on quilting. Others interviewed include Michael James, Carolyn Ducey and Janneken Smucker and students from Rousseau Elementary School. Lucile and Dorothy discussed individual blocks on the Discover Nebraska quilt. Other Discover Nebraska quilts shown were the Crazy Quilt, Dresden Plate Quilt and Judy Lane's handpainted quilt based on the book, "Sam Johnson and the Blue Ribbon Quilt." Dorothy showed the strip pieced pillow made by students of the Irving Middle School Prairie Festival lead by LQG members. These four-12 minute segments will be broadcast on Channel 5 during the month of April. The programs will be shown the following times: Mondays 11:30am and 9:30pm, Wednesdays 6pm, Thursdays 9:30am, Fridays 11:30am, Saturdays 11am and Sundays 5pm. This should be great public relations for the Lincoln Quilters Guild. Thanks Lucile and Dorothy!

IQSC Event Schedule.

Another exciting summer, filled with quilt-related events, is unfolding at the International Quilt Study Center at UNL

The IQSC exhibition "Modern Marvels: Quilts Made From Kits 1915-1950," opens at the Robert Hillestad Textiles Gallery on June 2nd. We invite you to attend a special opening reception on May 30th, from 5:00 - 6:15 pm and meet visiting members of the IQSC International Advisory Board.

"Modern Marvels" will be on display until August 29, 2003; special summer extended hours will give visitors an opportunity to tour the IQSC's state-of-the-art storage facility during their visit to the exhibition. Summer hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm and 1:00 pm to 4:00pm. Both the Hillestad Textiles Gallery and the IQSC are located on the second floor of the Home Economics Building on UNL's East Campus.

Two special public events are planned in conjunction with "Modern Marvels."

Join us for the IQSC's first Quilt Identification Day to be held in the Home Economics Building on Saturday, June 14, from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm. Members of the public are invited to bring in their family quilts where volunteers from the International Quilt Study Center will examine them and offer information about their patterns, fabrics and styles. Please call Alta at 402/472-6549 if you plan to attend. (There is a two quilt limit for each person.)

On June 25th, Merikay Waldvogel, author of Soft Covers for Hard Times and Patchwork Souvenirs of the 1933 Chicago World's Fair, will present a lecture titled "Kit Quilts: More Than They Were Cut Out To Be." The lecture will be held at 1:00 pm in the Home Economics Building auditorium, Room 14. Waldvogel, the 2003 Othmer Fellow at the International Quilt Study Center, will discuss kit quilt manufacturers and designers, their design sources, and kit package contents.

A new rotation of Amish crib quilts will also be on display in the ongoing IQSC exhibition, "At the Crossing: Midwestern Amish Crib Quilts and the Intersection of Cultures" at the Great Plains Art Collection at the Hewitt Place, 1155 Q St., Lincoln. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 10:00 am-5:00 pm and Sunday, 1:30 pm-5:00pm.

All IQSC exhibitions and events are free and open to the public. Call 402-472-6549 for more information.

Lincoln/Omaha Quilt Guild's Fall Retreat

October 3-5, 2003

Eastern Nebraska 4-H Center

Gretna, NE

Hosted by the Lincoln Quilt Guild

Cost: $80.00 (includes lodging, food, activities)

Enjoy a weekend of no phones ringing, no television blaring and no one tugging at your sleeve for you to leave your sewing machine to attend to their needs. Instead YOUR needs will be met this weekend. All meals will be cooked by someone else and no dishes to wash. Just sew to your hearts content. Either on your own project or our planned project. All while listening to the sounds of the '50's. Saturday night we will have a pajama party, with a prize for the best pj's, so put your imaginations to work.

We will again have massages on Saturday and Tai Chi on Sunday. The massages will be in a chair - $10.00 for 15 minutes. If you wish to enjoy a massage, check the registration form. You will schedule your time at the retreat and pay directly to the therapist at the time of your massage.

We are accepting registrations anytime after May 12, 2003. There will be 45 spots open for each guild until July 1, 2003. After that date, it will be first come, first serve. Complete the registration form, make a check payable to LINCOLN QUILT GUILD for $80 and enclose a SASE. No refunds after August 15 unless your spot is filled. The fee is higher than last year due to a registration fee that is now being charged by the 4-H Center.
