

APRIL MEETING LECTURE

"Leaping Past Fear & Discovering Your Niche"
Joyce R. Becker

A prize-winning quilter and the author of "Luscious Landscapes - Simple Techniques for Dynamic Quilts" and "Nature's Pattern, Inspirations and Techniques for Quilt Makers", Joyce R. Becker focuses her art, writing, teaching and lecturing on landscape quilts. Feeling blessed to have such a creative profession; Joyce volunteers throughout the quilting community and is one of the founding board members of the Association of Pacific Northwest Quilters. Many articles authored by Joyce have been published in national quilting magazines. Joyce's quilts have been displayed internationally in contests and invitational exhibits and have appeared in books, magazines and on television. Her first solo exhibit was held at the Auburn Arts Gallery sponsored by the Auburn Arts Commission in Auburn, Washington. Joyce taught and lectured at the IAQ Festival in Houston, TX in the fall of 2002. Joyce's lively sense of humor and positive attitude result in lectures and workshops that inspire, inform and entertain quilters as she travels throughout the world.

Joyce will be teaching a class "Luscious Little Landscapes," on Tues., April 13, at 9:00 a.m., at the All Saints Lutheran Church (8251 Pioneers). A class registration form is on page 11.

A Message from the President...

Thanks to...

Jean Davie and the Wednesday Girls for researching the Guild-owned quilts, and for bringing them to the March meeting. The membership hadn't seen them in a while, and it was a great reminder about our rich quilt history.

The Nominations Committee for providing a fine slate of officers for next year. They will be a great addition to the Executive Board, and will serve the Guild well. Thanks also for selecting our two Silver Star winners, Jean Ang and Diane Deahl.

To all that have worked on Cuddle Quilts this year, Anita Ahrens and Roxann O'Hare for delivering 240 quilts since June. Thirty-six Angel, 59 Premie, and 145 Cuddle Quilts have gone to various locations in Lincoln. This is a powerful commitment to Community Service by many faithful stitchers in LQG.

To the Visions Committee for hosting new members, and guiding them in learning about Guild activities.

Congratulations To...

Jean Ang and Diane Deahl for winning the Silver Star award. They have served the Guild in many capacities, and this recognition is only a part of the gratitude that we can express for the years of service that they have given to LQG.

Vicky Skuodas, Guild President

MAY MEETING LECTURE & CLASS INFORMATION

May's meeting will feature guest lecturer, Deana Hartman. Deana is a self-taught artist, a University of Northern Iowa education graduate and an English education graduate from Iowa State University. She has studied with internationally known quilt artists including David Walker, Jane Sassaman, the art quilt team of Susan Shie and James Acord, Wendy Huhn and Nancy Eha. Deana has been teaching quilting since 1997.

She creates original designs sculpted by fabric, extensive free-motion quilting and beaded embellishment. Her works reflect diverse topics from the spiritual realm, to nature, to technology.

She was featured in Quilting Arts Magazine, and has been published in the Kansas City Star, Kansas City Artist's Coalition's publication, Show and Tell, and The Point, a Sprint Corporation internal magazine article, "The Net Worth of Art and Science." She was part of the Quilting Arts 2003 Calendar and is featured in the in the 2004 School of Colour book on color in quilts.

Born in Omaha, Nebraska, she was raised in Fort Dodge, Iowa and met her husband, Wayne, in Neal Bower's poetry class at Iowa State University.

Deana will teach the "Artful Needle Book" class on Tuesday, May 11. A class registration form is on page 11.

LQG SPRING BUS TRIP!

Get ready for a fun-filled trip to "The Buttonhole" quilt shop in McPherson, Kansas on Saturday, April 17, 2004. Plans are underway for a Quilter's dream get-away! There'll be treat bags, movies, pop and popcorn on the bus to while away the hours. We'll have juice and muffins for breakfast for you as well.

Leave you UFO's and OLD fabric behind and join us for a wonderful day out! We will take reservations at the March Guild meeting or you can send the form and check (payable to LQG) to: Kathy Spitsen, 7609 Cooper Avenue, Lincoln, NE 68506 to reserve your spot! The cost of the trip is $45 payable at the time of registration and is non-refundable unless someone takes your place. More details will be coming! Any questions, call Cindy Hanzel at 488-8690 or Kathy Spitsen at 488-9557.

MINUTES OF THE LINCOLN QUILTERS GUILD

March 8, 2004 - 7:00 pm

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church
Lincoln, Nebraska

President Vicky Skuodas welcomed everyone and introduced Vice President Barb Clement. Barb introduced guest speaker Philomena Durcan, originally from County Sligo, Ireland and now living in the San Francisco bay area. She spoke on Celtic designs and "Color in My Quilts."

Call to Order: After a 10-minute break, President Vicky Skuodas called the meeting to order.

Minutes: One change will be made in the February 9 minutes: a reference was made to Red Dress pins recognizing breast cancer awareness should read "women's heart health awareness." Sharlee Green moved and Cindy Weyers seconded acceptance of the February 9 general meeting minutes, as printed in the Plain Print and with the suggested change. Motion passed unanimously.

Treasurer's Report: Lois Wilson moved and Barb Clemens seconded acceptance of the Treasurer's Report as printed in the Plain Print. Motion passed unanimously.

Nominations Committee: Wendy Ray asked for nominations from the floor for next year's officers. None were made. She then announced the slate of officers: President Elect, Linda Loker; Treasurer Elect, Peggy Clements; Vice President Elect, Linda Gapp; Secretary, Kathy Spitsen; President, Marilyn Rembolt; Treasurer, Lin Gowin O'Brien; Vice President, Cindy Weyers; Advisor, Vicky Skuodas.

Bright Star Award: Wendy Ray announced winners of the Bright Star Award, recognizing the work these individuals have done for the Guild: Diane Deahl and Jean Ang

Announcements: Marilyn Rembolt
Thanks to Refreshment Committee: Barbara Estergard, chair, Marcee Seng, Judy Dahlgren, Lynn White, Beverly Sayer, Jo Ann Leung, Dee Hines, and Nancy Pierce.

Guests: Fourteen guests were welcomed to tonight's meeting.

Thanks:

- Lou Lessman would like to express her thanks to all who called and sent cards of sympathy on the loss of her husband.
- The University Place Art Center expressed thanks to LQG for underwriting the cost of the February 6 reception for the Michael and Judith James exhibit.

Ortner Center open house: Guild members are invited to the open house on April 7 and 8 from 4-6 p.m. This is a new conference and dining facility on the Union College Campus. All open house guests will receive a loaf of bread and a gift certificate redeemable at Wheatberries Bakery in Union Market.

10th Annual Panhandle Festival of Quilts: The Pine Ridge Quilters is sponsoring this event in Chadron on April 16, 17 and 18th. The challenge competition theme is animals, and there is no designated fabric requirement. Visit the web site for more information:
www.festivalofquilts.com

25th Annual Nebraska MCC Sale. This Craft and Quilt Auction is scheduled for April 2 and 3 at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds in Aurora, NE. Contact Connie Bird if you're interested in the chartered bus trip to Aurora, $15 per seat.

Committee Chairs Needed: Marilyn Rembolt needs chairs for two committees next year:

- Newsletter Editor: Articles are sent to the editor by e-mail, and most activities take place the week of the general meeting.
- Librarian: It's suggested that two people share the duties for this committee. Marilyn thanked Karalene Smith and Becky Haynes for the great job they've done.

National Quilt Day – March 20: The Quilter's Tea for this event is scheduled from 1 to 3 p.m. at the 1st United Methodist Church at 50th and St. Paul Sts.

Next month's Guest Speaker: The speaker for April will be Joyce Becker from Washington State. She will lecture on "Luscious Little Landscapes" and conduct a class on April 13 at All Saints Lutheran Church, 8251 Pioneers.

April 17 Bus Trip: Cindy Hanzel and Kathy Spitsen have planned a trip to the Quilting Bee in Salinas, KS and the Buttonhole in McPherson, KS. The $45 fee is nonrefundable unless someone is found to take your place.

June 11-12-13 Quilt Show: Kim Shelley will meet with small committees in late March. She still needs someone to be in charge of taking down quilts after the show. Members were encouraged to pick up bookmarks and give them out. These bookmarks and brochures have been mailed to quilt shops across the state. Anyone wishing to enter a quilt can use the registration form in the Plain Print.

June 13 Quilt Auction: Kate Laucomer encouraged members who turn in a quilt for the auction to fill out the donor cards: name, address, quilt name and description. So far only 14 auction items have come in. Vicky Skuodas noted that the quilt show and auction is a LQG fund raiser that supplements the budget for items like monthly speakers. Members were reminded to pick up a book of raffle quilt tickets, because that money is all profit for us, and to let family and friends know the show dates.

MCG Reading Room: Sandy Anderson said there is $37,175.97 in the account as of the end of February. A $100 contribution was received from Janet Meyers, Harrisburg, PA, $50 from an anonymous donor, and $50 was donated directly to the Foundation. There are four mini-quilts that will be raffled off at the April LQG meeting, with proceeds going to the MCGRR. A central location is needed to collect items donated for the September garage sale.

Visions Committee: Lois Wilson reported that a social was hosted for 12 new members, and two small groups are forming. Volunteers are needed to conduct mini-workshops for new members. Members were encouraged to welcome anyone wearing the cloth name tag that all new members receive.

LQG Birthday Month: Vicky Skuodas thanked the refreshment committee for the balloons and cupcakes in honor of our Birthday Month. The names of three people were drawn to receive gift bags, in honor of our birthday: Carol Curtis, Bernice Jeffries, and Judy Wright. Jean Davie and the Wednesday Girls displayed the quilts and banners owned by LQG. The Wednesday girls are documenting the history of those quilts, and they welcome any information about them that any member may have.

Library: Karalene Smith wants to complete the Guild's 35-year collection of Quilter's Newsletter Magazine, see the Plain Print for specific issues needed. The last book and magazine sale will be held at the April meeting, with proceeds going to the MCGRR. Karalene has membership forms for the State Quilt Guild. Quilt Nebraska is set for July 22-23-24 in Lincoln. Rooms are still available at the Cornhusker Hotel, 2 beds for $90.

Mini Raffle: Elizabeth Sterns and Joyce Donlan collected $142 tonight, the most so far this year. These funds go into the LQG general operations budget. Donations came from Connie Strobe, Lori Lamer, Marie Mogis and Kay Goehring and were won respectively by Lora Yardley, Kathy Jacobson, Connie Strobe, and Dana Atteberry. Jaynee Wolfe, Sandy Anderson, Gloria Bell and Mary Warner are scheduled to donate items for the April mini-raffle.

Fat Quarter Give Away: Rosalind Carr gave fat quarters to guests Danielle Vallis, Cindy Meyer, and Georgia Jones. Fat quarters went to members Mary Gant, Jaynee Wolfe, Mary Warner, Diane Quitmeyer, Chris Wiegers, Pat King, Shirley Anderson and Rosalind Carr.

Cuddle Quilts: Anita Ahrens thanked the seven people who attended the March cuddle quilt workshop. Tonight 15 cuddle quilts, 16 tops and 18 preemie quilts were turned in. Jean Davie and Sally Basham won flannel fat quarters.

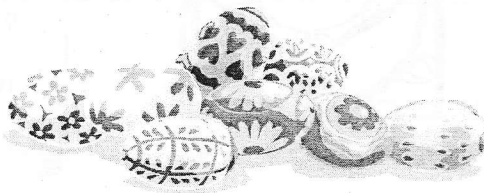

Friendship Blocks: Jean Garvin received 47 blocks tonight, which went to: Barb Burton, Anita Ahrens, Marilyn Rembolt, Lora Yardley and Evy Nielsen.

Vicky Skuodas had several announcements:

- The MCGRR cheese boxes are out.
- April is LQG membership renewal month.
- The Executive Board is enacting a suggestion from the Nominations Committee. Beginning with the next slate of officers, the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary will receive a $25 fee waiver toward one class during that year. No money will be exchanged, and the officer can't "bump" anyone if a class fills up.
- The Board is considering charging a $5 fee for visitors at meetings. In some guilds, this is a common practice. If you have thoughts about this, contact anyone on the Executive Board.

There was no new business, and the meeting adjourned to Show and Tell at 8:55 p.m.

If You Like a Challenge
Participate in the 2004 LQG Quilt Show
"Grand Mothers" Challenge
"A tribute to influential women in the lives of LQG members"

Each member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild has been positively influenced by an important woman in their life -- a mother, grandmother, teacher, neighbor, friend, etc. The "Grand Mothers" challenge is an opportunity for us to honor these women through the art of quilting. Participation is optional.

CHALLENGE RULES:

1. Any LQG member, at any quilting level, is welcome to participate in the challenge.
2. The quilt will somehow represent the theme according to the vision of the quilter.
3. The quilt should be wall hanging size and may be any shape. Total outside measurements of the quilt should be no less than 48" and no more than 180".
4. Quilts may be pieced, appliquéd, or a combination of techniques. Quilts may be hand or machine quilted. The quilt may not be tied. Embellishments are acceptable.
5. Quilt must have a 4" sleeve on the back. (Sleeve may be smaller if quilt is extremely small.)
6. Quilt must have an identification label on the bottom, back corner containing the following information: quilter's name, quilter's address, and the title of the quilt.
7. When turned in, the quilt must be in a cloth bag identifying the name, address, and telephone number of the quilter. The quilt must be accompanied by a registration form, which includes a short description of the inspiration/interpretation of the theme that led to the creation of the quilt.
8. Challenge quilts must be dropped off at the designated quilt drop-off locations during designated drop-off hours. (Drop-off locations and times are yet to be determined. They will be announced later.)
9. The challenge quilts will be hung together at the 2004 LQG Quilt Show.
10. Quilts will not be judged, but viewer's choice will be selected by votes of quilt show visitors.

LQG Quilt Show 2004

"Grandma's Legacy and Beyond" will be held June 11-13 at Lux Middle School, 79th and High Street. Each member is invited to submit up to 4 entries for the show. A quilt series is considered 1 entry. If you participate in the "Grand Mothers Challenge," the challenge submission counts as 1 entry.

A quilt show entry form is included in this issue of the Plain Print. Feel free to duplicate as many times as necessary. Bring completed entry forms to the April or May Guild meetings, or send them to Lorelee Novak, 2510 Jameson N., Lincoln, NE 68512. Entry forms must be turned in on or before the Guild meeting on May 10.

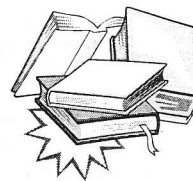

Quilt Show entries may be delivered directly to Lux Middle School on Wednesday, June 9, 1-3 p.m. If it is more convenient, you may drop off your entries in advance at designated locations. Advance drop-off times are Friday, June 4, 6-8 p.m. and Saturday, June 5, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Advance drop-off sites will be announced at the April meeting.

"Grandma's Legacy and Beyond" is going to be a great show. Please be part of its success by exhibiting items in the show, selling raffle tickets, helping on a committee, donating auction items, or by encouraging your friends and family to attend. If you have any questions, please contact Kimberly Shelley at 467-4266 or via email at scrappyquilt@hotmail.com.

One More Sale One More Time

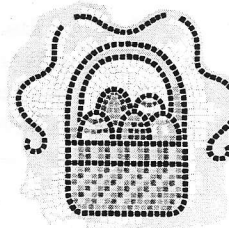

In April we will have one more book sale with the proceeds going toward the Mary Campbell Ghormely Reading Room.

Our two previous sales have made a profit of $317.00. We have cleaned up our guild library shelves and many of you have donated books and magazines to the sales. We have recycled a lot among our membership because you are great buyers too!

There is still time for you to clean out those unwanted books and magazines. Anything that deals with fiber arts is welcome. You may bring your items to the March and April Guild meetings or call one of us to pick up your items if you have a lot.

We have also had some wonderful books donated to the library collection and we would be glad to talk to anyone about book additions. Thank you so much for making this little project a big success toward the goal of the Reading Room.
