Lincoln Quilters Guild Announcements

Isles Sale

The Isles (6232 Havelock Ave) sale is coming up on March 30th, from 10 to 3. Entry is a can of food for the Food Bank, or $1. Several vendors will be there to sell sewing needs to all.

If you have fabrics to donate, you can bring them to the March Guild meeting. Please leave those things at the south door #2. No books or magazines please.

Meeting Assistance

As always, we need holders and folders at each Guild meeting. You can really get a close up view of the quilts. If we have several people help out at each meeting, no one has to take on the entire burden.

Quilt Show & Workshop Opportunities

The Kansas City Regional Quilt Show will be held on June 11-14. More info at kcrqf.com You will see many choices for classes. The costs start at $85.

Our Guild classes are at about $50. You can save time and money if you attend our Guild sponsored classes! No hotel accommodations, or travel expenses! You only have to travel as far as the IQM!

Consider our LQG upcoming speaker: Deanne Faimon. She is offering a techniques class -- the how-to on her methods to create stunning art quilts. There are only 15 spots in her class, and about half are already taken. Check with Marty Link about available spots.

Our own Quilt Show is scheduled for October 25th -- just 2 months before Christmas. Please consider your entry for this year's show.

Newbie Group

If you are new to LQG, this is a great opportunity to learn more about the choices for your participation in the Guild. You will meet with other newcomers in a smaller group. This is a great opportunity to make new friends, and ask questions. The first meeting will be on Monday, March 17th at the Anderson Public Library, (3635 Touzalin Ave) from 5:45 to 7:45.
