Lincoln Quilters Guild

June 2025

From the President

June has ushered in welcome rains to our area...let the flowers bloom! Maybe that will suggest a floral quilt as your next project...Hmmm?

A reminder that we are meeting at the IQM this month. The building will be open at 5:30, and close at 8. Please enjoy the quilt exhibits as part of your evening. We will have cookies for you as part of our member appreciation.

There will be no committee tables for this Guild meeting: no Cuddles, QOV, Mini Raffle, Membership or selling tickets for the LQG raffle quilt, and no Show and Tell. We will resume those activities in July. Also, no visitor fees for this meeting as well – consider inviting a guest to join us.

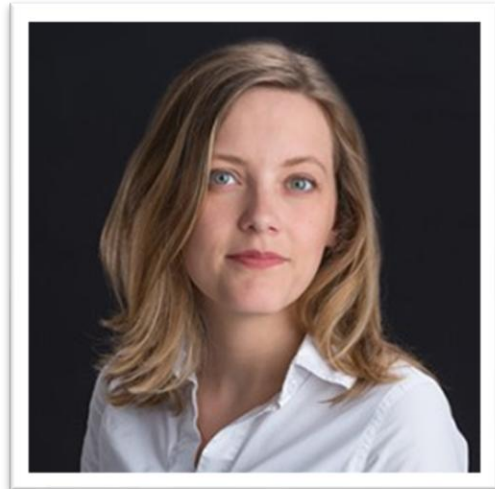

No class this month. We will have samples of class projects for future classes at the Guild meeting. Please consider joining us for the class in July - Chop It Like It's Hot!

June 10 Program - 6 p.m. Start Time

Speaker: Sarah Walcott

Report: Scholarship Project

Sarah Walcott is the International Quilt Museum's collections manager. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and a Master of Arts in textile history with a concentration in quilt studies from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. She is currently a PhD candidate in Human Sciences with a concentration in Material Culture and Textile Studies (more information).

Speaker: Barbara Caron

Program: Trunk Show

Barb Caron has included a listing of her trunk show quilts on the website (click here). Her quilts go back to the 80's. She is a truly talented quilter, and will have some great pieces to share with us.

May LQG Minutes

Lincoln Quilters Guild Meeting Minutes
Monday, May 12, 2025, at 7:00 pm
SDA Church, Lincoln, NE

Guild President, Vicky Skuodas, called the meeting to order and welcomed all in attendance. Vicky warned that there have been cyber-attacks on LQG, as well as phishing. She encouraged everyone to watch and be cautious.

The April minutes were published in the Plain Print. Kathy Spitzen moved the minutes be approved. Liane Connelly seconded. The minutes were approved.

The April treasurer's report was also published in the Plain Print. Marty Link moved the report be approved. Lois Wilson seconded. The treasurer's report was approved.

There were no guests. At future meetings, visitors and guests will have their names entered into a prize drawing and one visitor will win. If the winning visitor was invited by a Guild member, that member will also get a prize!

The June 9th Guild meeting will be at the International Quilt Museum. It will begin at 6:00 pm. The Museum closes at 8:00 pm. Barb Caron will be the lecturer. Sarah Wolcott was the scholarship winner last year. She is now the Director of Collections at the Museum. She'll tell the Guild how she used her scholarship.

Cuddle Quilts will meet one week later in July, on Friday, July 11th, instead of July 4th.

Vicky encouraged members to take advantage of the excellent classes offered by Guild speakers. It's a great opportunity to learn more about quilting!

Treasurer-elect, Vice-President-elect for programs, and President-elect are needed for next Guild year. Please consider contributing your skills to the Guild. The strength of the Guild is made stronger through the input of new voices. If you are interested or have suggestions, please contact president Vicky Skuodas or past-president Tammy Hensley.

Vicky also asked that members who give announcements to please give a copy of their comments to secretary Pam Wakeman for the minutes.

President-elect Liane Connelly gave the following announcements:

- The recommended Sleep in Heavenly Peace donated quilt size is 50" x 70". St. Mark's Church is hosting a John Denver tribute performer on June 26th from 7 pm to 9 pm. All free-will donations will go to the Sleep in Heavenly Peace project to build 140 beds in September. SHP information is now posted on the Guild website under Community Outreach.
 - Other area quilting events are posted on the Guild website. Midwest Bank is collecting blankets to donate for the Matt Talbot Kitchens homeless population.
 - Give to Lincoln Day is May 29th. Checks must be mailed by May 22nd.
 - The Board is thinking about next year, which will be our country's 250th year or the Semi-QuinCentennial. If you have ideas of how to celebrate, please contact Vicky.
